They know two court rooms in Common Pleas No. 7 can't handle work now handled by five court rooms and a motion judge. They are not fooled by talk of trying cases without juries and thus accelerating the disposition of cases. Cases can be and are tried every day in the Common Pleas Courts without a jury. Those men are decrying this crack pot legislation because they are satisified that they now get their cases disposed of expeditiously and equitably. They know that this change would result in trial lists falling three years behind, and smaller cases again becoming lost in the shuffle. And how will that condition be rectified? Well a new legislature would be not tempted to disinherit your family court and reinstate a Municipal Court. I say tempted because that would be a natural reaction. But on the other hand perhaps we would philosophise that two wrongs don't make a right. However no matter what the political complection of the legislature might be in 1939 it will be forced to bow to the demand of the people of Philadelphia of all parties for adequate court facilities which will mean Common Pleas No. 8 and a further burden of $42,500 on the State as a whole or the re-incarnation of a court of limited civil jurisdiction such as we now have. So from a mercenary standpoint the additional burden upon the people of Pennsylvania will be some $73,500 and you will no doubt be still paying the present judges their salaries. Wouldn't it be ironical if you Democrats who voted for their ouster would be forced by public mandate to reinstate those same men.

I have at some length tried to appeal to your judgment and fairness. Isn't the price of political jobs too high when that price is the sacrifice of the constitutional rights of litigants. Isn't the price too high when the same result can be achieved in a Constitutional way. Who will thank you for such injustice. Certainly not the litigant whose case is listed for trial this month or the next. Certainly not the good citizen in any part of Pennsylvania, even if he condones your offense at this time. The re-action is setting in. Let us not destroy where we can cure.

Therefore, I ask the members of the House not to abolish a court that is rendering good service, a court that is in operation today, a court where the trial lists are made up and litigants are looking forward to have their cases disposed of within the next two or three months. Let us not break it up and say, "Oh, we are going to put in some other Court." I say from a practical standpoint it cannot be done and from a moral standpoint it should not be done. I ask the members not to support this bill.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not going to impose upon your time this evening by referring to the merits of this bill together with its companion measures. The reconstruction program, if you please, of Philadelphia's court system has been thoroughly discussed on the floor of this House.

I listened with a great deal of attention to the things my colleague from Philadelphia had to say. None of them are new. He presented no defense for the inexcusable lack of attention paid by the judges of that court to the duties imposed upon them by the Legislature. He gave no excuse or no defense for the deliberate violations of acts of this Legislature which have been permitted time and time again by these judges as individuals and as a Board of Judges. He merely comes here and makes a plea to you and to me representing the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that we continue this travesty on justice, this condition that has resulted in the loss of that respect that is demanded by our courts, which is the backbone of our system of justice today, and to which respect they are entitled only so long as they continue to be courts of justice.

The Municipal Court of Philadelphia has been a stench in the nostrils of the citizens of that city for a number of years, in fact, since its inception, and it will continue to be so only as long as it takes the Democratic Administration, which is pledged to real good government not only in our court system but in our other forms of government in the State of Pennsylvania, to rip out of office judges who fail to obey the law as laws that are laid down by our law making bodies of this Commonwealth.

For these two reasons, without enumerating numerous others, I ask the support of the members of this House for this bill.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny explain this bill.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill amends Article XIV of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in accordance with the recommendation of the Local Government Commission. It makes it more difficult, in fact impossible, to create new counties, but provides for the consolidation of counties contiguous or adjoining each other. The bill further provides an amendment to the Constitution eliminating entirely fee offices. It provides that only the following officers shall be constituted as constitutional officers, that is District Attorney, County Controller, and the Sheriff's office are constituted as constitutional offices. All other offices as provided in the latter part of the bill, on page 2, shall be provided for by law, that is County Surveyor, County Recorder, Prothonotary and all other officers shall be those that the Legislature sees fit to provide.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, it also provides, does it not, that the County Commisioners shall be constitutional officers?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with the first section of this bill with respect to consolidation I have no quarrel but with the second section of this bill, which would leave it up to the Legislature to determine whether there should be a Register, a Prothonotary, a Recorder of Deeds, a Clerks of Courts, or a County Treasurer, I am in hearty opposition. After the disgraceful situation,—and I say that in spite of the fact that I count so many men on the other side of this House as my friends,—but after the disgraceful situation that has happened in reference to the ripper legislation in Philadelphia, and after the bill that has just been passed and in which they said there was so much wrong with the Municipal Court that it ought to be ripped out, while we have plenty of laws on our statute books which provide for the impeachment of judges when they are wrong; after we have seen the shuffling and shifting backwards and forwards of so many employes in the city of Philadelphia, and possible attempts that will be made in other counties, I am not willing to leave it to the Legislature to determine whether we shall have certain offices in our county or not, because I have no hesitancy in believing that no matter who is here in the future, that from the example that has been set this year in this Session of the Legislature, by you men of the Democratic party, that in the future there will be just as many reprisals from the Republicans or whatever party may be in control. You have laid down a precedent here that is going to be hard to down in the future, and I want to predict now that it is going to come back to haunt you in the future. You cannot forecast what is going to happen and you cannot, every time the Legislature meets, shuffle jobs around in the county to suit the political party that may then be in power. You transfer the appointments one time to the City Treasurer, and the next time to the Controller and the next time to the Governor and there are bills here even authorizing the Auditor General to make certain appointments in certain counties. My friends, I want to say that I think this is a dangerous precedent to set before us as a session of the Legislature. The Constitution provides what offices shall be in the counties. I have always felt that there should be more flexibility in the determination of the offices that should exist in certain counties. It is not always possible in the classification of counties to provide a scheme that will work most efficiently. There are some counties of the lower classifications that should not have the burden of maintaining some of the offices we talked about. When you try to make a horizontal line for some of these counties, when you try to put them in the same classification, perhaps there are some counties that should not have the same classification of offices that some other counties have, but as I said before when you have the precedent that you have set here, when you see the conditions that are likely to exist, you have a dangerous situation.

For instance, one legislature might throw out the offices of the Prothonotary and the Register of Wills, or combine those offices with the office of Recorder of Deeds, or say that the Controller should act as the Treasurer as well as the Controller, as a political device, or when you might have the County Commissioners act as Treasurer by some act of legislature, then I say we are getting on dangerous ground, and therefore this Constitutional amendment should not pass.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is not a ripper bill, in fact the taxpayers of this Commonwealth have advocated this legislation for the past twenty years. Let me inform the membership of this House that the Local Government Commission, composed of five Republicans and five Democrats, which commission was headed by Senator Mallery, a Republican of Blair county, made this recommendation and they say in their report: "The framework of the county is presently rigidly fixed in Article XIV of the Constitution, section 1 of which enumerates sixteen county officers, at least thirteen of whom must be elected in such county. The Constitution also permits the creation of new counties (Article XIII), although no legislative machinery exists to carry this provision into effect.

The Commission recommends that Article XIV of the Constitution and related provisions in other articles be entirely revised to prohibit the future creation of new counties, to eliminate all county officers as constitution officers, except the three commissioners, a controller and district attorney." And we in addition to that added the office of sheriff. "In this way the hands of the Legislature may be freed to organize the county government upon such plan as it deems most feasible, and at the same time abolish the system of compensating any county officer by fees whether for the performance of county or State functions.

The Commission believes that by a reorganization of the county, governmental costs may be materially reduced. A proposed Constitutional Amendment will be submitted on this subject."

I say this is one of the principal arguments against ox-cart government. There is no reason today why any county should maintain the office of County Surveyor even though the Constitution provides that they may have a County Surveyor. Many counties ignore this provision of the Constitution. Then take the office of the County Coroner. As the gentleman on the other side of the House well knows, this is an outmoded office, absolutely obsolete and this office can be well carried on by the District Attorney's office by one well learned in medicine to carry on the duties of Coroner. There are other offices. for instance the Prothonotary and the Clerk of Courts. They do the very same thing, one for the Court of Quarter Sessions and the other for the Court of Common Pleas. This is an economy measure; there is no reason why we cannot bring about some reform and some economy to the taxpayers of this Commonwealth, and, members of the House, this bill is intended for that purpose. I ask the members of the House to carry out the pledge of the Democratic party to the taxpayers of this Commonwealth by passing this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, of course our friend from Allegheny county has very adroitly picked out the three weakest spots in the whole situation. There is no real answer I think as to the question of the Clerk of Quarter Sessions and the Prothonotary as I see it. In our county at least I know they are vey busy offices, and there is some real reason for having a division of that work, because as he said, one pertains to the Court of Quarter Sessions and the other to the Court of Common Pleas, and performs many other duties besides those pertaining to civil actions in the Court of Common Pleas. The Coroner's office may be a perfectly proper one. I do not know much about Coroners, I do not practice in the Coroner's court. Those are dead issues with which my friend from Allegheny possibly is more familiar than I am, but I do think there might be some reason, but why can we not submit an amendment to the Constitution leaving it up to the people to determine whether they want to abolish the District Attorney, the Controller and the Sheriff, or consolidate these offices, or what they want to do with them? But my friend from Allegheny county has not said a word about the Prothonotary's office. It could be taken out of your control and left up to some future legislature. You might find some Senator who did not like a particular prothonotary and he might come down here with a bill to abolish the office of Prothonotary and the Prothonotary's Office as every lawyer knows is a most important one in the conduct of every county. Our friend from Allegheny has said nothing about the office of Recorder of Deeds, which is one of the most important offices I think. In a county that is growing as fast as Delaware county or many of the other counties which I could name, the office of the Recorde of Deeds is a very active one, a very important office and performs a very great function in our scheme of government. He said nothing about the offices of Register of Wills or County Treasurers. I don't know whether there is any reason why the County Treasurer should not be a Constitutional office. I don't know whether there is any reason why that office should not be left in as well as the Sheriff and these other officers. If there is reason in what the gentleman says, if there is sound reason and logical reason why the Legislature should control them, take them off and wipe out the offices and leave it up to the determination of the legislature. But the question whether there should be consolidation or not does not answer the question I have raised here, and that is that I am not willing to leave to the tender mercies of future Legislatures as to what offices shall exist in the counties, what offices should be consolidated or abolished entirely. I ask you to vote "no" on this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

CONSENT REQUESTED TO READ BILL FIRST TIME

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask the unanimous consent for House Bill No. 2175, Senate Bill No. 372, which was just reported from committee to be read for the first time.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to read the bill for the first time? Are there objections?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask permission to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Patterson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny why it is necessary to push this bill?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, I would say that I am doing so in accordnace with the instructions of the committee.

Mr. TURNER. What committee, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. The Committee on Elections, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman a member of that committee?

Mr. JAMES W. PATERSON. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know the reason why the committee wanted the bill pushed?

Mr. JAMES W. PATERSON. In reply to the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, I would say that I think his question would be better directed to the county affected.

Mr. TURNER. What is the county affected, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. JAMES W. PATERSON. The County of Schuylkill, I believe, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask whether there is someone here from the County of Schuylkill who can explain why we should have this bill read for the first time?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Schrock permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHROCK. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain the necessity for speed in this case.

Mr. SCHROCK. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Delaware, this is a Senate bill that has been over the Senate since March and there is a condition existing in Schuylkill County now that if this bill is to mean anything to Schuylkill County it will necessarily have to be passed this week.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, why should the Governor make the appointment? Is it not the law now that vacancies on school boards are filled either by the board or by the Common Pleas Court.

Mr. SCHROCK. Mr. Speaker, in this particular case it would be filled by the court.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that under this bill it would be filled by the Governor.

Mr. SCHROCK. Mr. Speaker, as the law stands at the present time I mean.

Mr. TURNER. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, it seems to make an exception for a particular school district.

Mr. SCHROCK. A fourth class county, Mr. Speaker a fourth class district.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker it was for a particular school district that this bill was written, was it not?

Mr. SCHROCK. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Delaware, this is a Senate bill and, naturally, I did not introduce the bill and I cannot say that it was introduced for one particular district. It was introduced by Senator Frye, I think, of Allegheny County.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker. I realize the difficulty of the gentleman from Schuylkill. He is in a rather embarrasing position. It is just another one of those bills that savors of the same thing, trying to seek some special way to get around the ordinary procedure, and therefore, I object to its being read for the first time.

Mr. SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections, and consent is not granted.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULES

Mr. SCHROCK. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Rules 14, 41 and 43, be suspended for the special purpose of having House Bill No. 1275, Senate Bill No. 372 read for the first time.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. TURNER. Is the bill on file, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. The bill is on the Senate file.

Mr. TURNER. I am advised that it is on file, Mr. Speaker. I therefore renew my request for a roll call.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, is a motion to lay on the table in order?

Mr. SPEAKER. In answer to the parliamentary inquiry of the gentleman from Delaware, a motion to lay on the table is not in order. The motion to suspend House Rules 14, 41 and 43 is the question now before the House.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. McDEWITT,

Legislative Journal.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 1937. No. 45.

SENATE

TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 1937

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Our Father, we thank Thee for the smiling petals of blooming flowers; for nature's sunshine, ushered into the music of songful birds—and Thou art the giver of every good gift!

As we exult in nature's spring-time garb and glory, touch our hears that we may discern nature, nature's God.

Our Father, returning to the fellowship of another week, we note the absence of one who had become entrenched in the confidence of his associates. Entrusted with great responsibilities, there was free interflow of mutual respect.

Sustain him in his new field of labor, and may we profit here in wholesome memory of his wise and modest and self-effacing counsel. Amen.

RESOLUTION RELATING TO STOCKING CERTAIN STREAMS WITH FISH

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. RANKIN offered the following resolution which was twice read:

Whereas, On April 14, 1937 a law became effective to permit fishing on Sunday in the Commonwealth but only with the consent of the owner or lessee of the land abutting on the stream or body of water where the fishing is done, and

Whereas, Newspaper accounts allege that certain owners of lands, where fishing has previously been permitted, have indicated their intention to post their lands against trespassing thus denying to the public the healthful recreation of fishing, and

Whereas, The fishing laws of this Commonwealth, as now existing, are designed to make this healthful sport of fishing available to as many of our people as possible, and to aid in accomplishing this purpose prohibit the planting of fish in those waters of the Commonwealth where fishing by the public is not permitted, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Board of Fish Commissioners is hereby directed to publicize, in such manner as it deems most appropriate, the fact the fishing laws of this Commonwealth permit the stocking with fish propogated by the Commonwealth, of only those streams, lakes and ponds in which the public is permitted to fish, and that it is unlawful to stock with fish, propogated by the Commonwealth, those waters which are posted against fishing.

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Board of Fish Commissioners by the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection. The Resolution is referred to the Committee on Game and Fisheries.

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 485,, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred sixty-five) entitled "An act to encourage and authorize the formation of cooperative associations productive and distributive by farmers mechanics laborers or other persons" by extending and changing the provisions thereof imposing an annual fee on such associations and exempting them from State taxation

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to draw the attention of the sponsor of this bill to page 25 commencing with line 10"

"such associations shall pay annually on or before May first to the Department of Revenue a fee of ten dollars for each one hundred members or fraction thereof but shall be exempt from all other State taxes of whatever kind or nature".

Mr. President, I think this is a very important part of this Bill, and I am wondering whether the sponsor of the bill really has knowledge of this portion of the bill.

Mr. President, I would like to interogate the Senator form Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel.

The PRESIDENT, Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, is it the intention of the Senator form Dauphin, that such associations as set-up in this bill will be exempt from all State taxes?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, yes, these associations set up our co-operative associations. They are to be formed and operated on a non-profit basis. The non-profit corporations in this State now existing pay no State taxes The farmers corporative association, under the Act of 1929 pay no State taxes. These organizations are not money-making organizations, they are money saving organizations for the members of the corporatives and the members and as individuals, and as citizens pay their taxes. This bill amends the old Act of 1887.. That Act did not impose any taxes upon corporative organizations. The Act of 1887 did not even provide for the payment of an annual fee to the Secretary of Revenue. This is an amendment to and a reactment of the old corporative Act, but it goes further than the old Act does and it provides for a contribution by these corporatives to the Secretary of Revenue of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The idea of taxing corporatives, destroys the very basis and the underlying philosophy of corporative associations.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, Is it not a fact that it is possible for these associations to make a profit in their business?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, they cannot make a profit larger than the profit to which it is limited namely, 6%, and it is to be distributed and paid out to the members and patrons—those who are concerned in the corporative business—they do not then make any profit.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, did the Senator say that it would be paid out to members of the association?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, as I said before, it is not a money making proposition, it is a money saving proposition for the benefit of the members of the corporative associations, who as individuals and citizens pay their taxes.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, does the Senator from Dauphin, believe or think that the average business house makes a profit above 6%?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I do not know, but I certainly think that most of them do.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, is it not a fact, whether or not they make the 6% that they still are assessed under the laws of our State requiring the taxation, whereas, this association with one exception, the payment of 10 cents per member per year, and it is supposed to make 6% for the members and divide the profits among the members, would they still be exempt from taxation, is that correct?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, yes, it is exempt from taxation except—

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, and they can divide profits and be exempt from further taxation, whereas a small merchant might only break even, but still he is forced to pay the tax under the laws of our Government?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, he is in business for the benefit of himself, on a profit making proposition. He pays the tax and if he cannot make a profit to pay the tax, he goes out of business.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I think this is unfair competition to the average retailer. I believe in organizations of this kind, but I do not believe they should be exempted. They should be governed in the same manner as any other merchants are governed, and I would like to have the Senator from Dauphin consider this important part of the bill; therefore I ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I raise my voice in objection. I think the bill should be passed on here today, right on the floor and disposed of.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 485, be placed on the postponed Calendar for the present.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, 10 Senators voted in the affirmative, and 24 Senators in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Dauphin. Mr. Kunkel.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel, permit himself to be interrogated:

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel, as to what the effect of this bill will be upon the small merchant. I personally believe that the thought back of the measure is a good one, but I am somewhat alarmed that it will have a disasterous and ruinous effect upon many of our small merchants.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I do not anticipate it will have any immediate effect whatever on the small merchants. Corporatives are now in existence under the old Act, and they may grow in future whether this bill is passed or not.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, and the Senator from Dauphin, thinks it would not have a disasterous effect on the small merchants.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I do not know.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, would the associations be authorized to sell to individuals who are not members of the association?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, yes, but this does not create anything new, anything that is not already in existence; the small merchants still operate.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, it seems to me that this bill goes far beyond the Act which it is intended to amend. In the first place it includes such persons as natural persons, firms, associations, corporations, business trusts, partnerships, and bodies politics. In reading over the bill, I cannot for the life of me see why the sponsor of this bill has placed in it these words:

"Such association shall be exempt in any and all respects from the jurisdiction and control of the Securities Commission and the Public Service Commission of this Commonwealth or similar bodies hereafter created with the powers and duties to said commissions."

And then further, on page 25, beginning with line 15, these words:

"Such association shall not be required to file with the Secretary of Revenue the reports relative to such other taxes as are or may be by law required of corporations not exempt from the payment of such taxes."

A few weeks ago, this chamber approved recommendations of the Governor to membership of a new board. It was an administration measure. I cannot see why the sponsor, who is a member of the majority party of this administration, comes along now and tries to exempt these cooperative associations which he is trying to exempt from the operation of this measure which we just voted for, I cannot see what he has in mind. He has created suspicions that this new board which we have formed, might hamper in any way these associations which he now asks us to endorse. I was approached by Representatives of the Pennsylvania Retailers Association. Their arguments against this bill are not on the basis of competition. They informed me that they welcome any competition from a cooperative association, but they say it is unfair and unjust for this Legislature to exempt cooperatives from any taxes, allow them to compete with the retailer, and yet impose and allow taxes to remain on the retailer. In that respect it is unjust and I do not believe any member of the Senate can convince himself that these associations will confine themselves to farmers out in the sticks and groups of people who are just trying to help their neighbors. The Act is too broad, by far too comprehensive, and in that respect I believe the sponsor agrees, because he is trying to exempt these associations from the operations of the new Service Commission. I think we are doing a great deal of harm. The very people from whom we collect a large amount of taxes in this State are being placed on an unfair competitive basis with the respect with these cooperative bodies, and I hope the Senate will vote down the bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this is a revelation that there are so many economic royalists on the Democratic side. This is democracy that we are advocating. I am an officer in one of these cooperative stores in Germantown. We have a small store and we do a small business, we could do more, and it is A B C simple democratic proposition. We go out into the country and buy fruits and vegetables and sell them to the members and cut out the middle man. Somebody is going to get hurt, but this is very incidental I would say for the Democrats to oppose this measure. We've talked about the different ways of the dealers and the consumers and here's a break for the consumer. It gives me great pleasure to find that some of the Democrats are becoming such royalists.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I would like to know if the Senator from Philadelphia, thinks it is fair to exempt these associations.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, Personal Privilege, yes. The Capitalists have special privilege, corporations have special privilege, and I am asking it for the class of people who are organized.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, and it is a special privilege for the little merchant to serve the people of Pennsylvania now?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, if the little merchant is efficient, he will not be put out of business.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, if you set up an agency that will compete with him, that does not pay any taxes?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, yes. Let me tell you a story; this started out with the farmers, because when they buy their fertilizer, then when they want oil they put up a number 3 oiling station, especially in the West where they set up oil-filling stations and then the big oil companies try to put them out of business by lowering the price, so they held meetings there, and when the big oil companies would put their prices down, the farmers would buy their oil from the big oil companies, so the big oil companies got tired of selling at the lower price and their price would then go up, then the farmers would open up their oil station again and resume business. That is the way it works it is just a simple proposition.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny. Mr. Rodgers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, whether under the provisions of this bill, this plan for flood control, whether the owner of a farm may in the future be able to get anv pay for improvements that he may put on the place? I have in mind a case where it may be eight or ten years until the improvements are actually made and in the meantime the farmer cannot use his farm and he has no compensation, he is not able to make any improvements or do anything to make a living.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, that is a question that, so far as I know, has never been discussed.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, it may be his home and it may require certain improvements to make it livable and if he has got for ego any money in the condemnation of his farm for a number of years and he is not able to do anything on it, it may be his only home and he cannot move because he is not getting compensation for it. This situation ought to be protected in this bill.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 796, (House Bill No. 917), entitled:

An Act providing for the licensing of all persons engaged as blasters except in anthracite or bituminous coal mines or on farms requiring examination for such license providing for the payment of a fee for examination and for the issuance and renewal of licenses and providing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to know if there is anybody here who can give some explanation on the purpose of this bill, therefore I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on State Government, Mr. Gilson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Erie, Mr. Gilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will the Senator kindly explain the purpose of this bill.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, this bill is a safety measure to protect the public and also those who are engaged in blasting. Of course, I cannot give you the purpose much more definitely.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will the Senator from Erie, Mr. Gilson, explain why if it is designed to be a safety measure it doesn't mention farmers? I do not know why the sponsor who does blasting under the barn should not be included.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, because probably a different charge is used, a charge of a different character than is used in blasting in quarries and elsewhere, also in road work and other places, it wouldn't be as dangerous.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, is it not possible that blasting on the highway or on a farm might not kill four or five people just the same as a man who is doing his duty in other blasting.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, the bill it might be more inclusive and secure more safety, that is not really sufficiently definite in the bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, then, of course, if the applicant applying for this license to blast must submit $3 with the application, I would like to know if that $3 would be returned to the applicant.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, no, I do not know, but I think there is a certain amount to be submitted with the application with the license, which is not excessive. I do not believe it is an unjust measure to ask the applicant for that, he is not risking very much money.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, there is some misunderstanding: On page 2, Section 2 reads: "Application for examination shall be made in writing to the Department of Labor and Industry on a form provided by the Department and shall be accompanied by a fee of three dollars if the applicant is successful in passing said examination a license shall be issued upon payment of an additional fee of one dollar." and therefore, that would make the license fee $4.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, in reference to this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator explain section 2, on page 3 of the bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, it is to be kept in mind that as the coal is mined in the mines of this Commonwealth, the miner is paid either by measurement or by weight. Where the miner is paid by weight, it makes no difference what the size of the car would be, it might be a 48-bushel car, a 58-bushel car or a 60-bushel car, it matters not because the coal is weighed and he cannot be defrauded. But then there are other mines where he is paid by measure, and the cars are designated as 48, 58 or 60-bushel cars, we will say, by the employer. Now, this section of the Act prevents the operator from having one car of 48-bushel capacity, another of 58-bushel capacity and possibly another of 60-bushel capacity in the same mines. If we permit the employer to have such cars, then he pays the miner for a 48-bushel car when the man has loaded a 58-bushel car, thereby defrauding him of 10 bushels which he loaded in the car.

Now, this section provides that where coal is mined by measurements that the cars be uniform in size, and that a car should not be permitted to enter the mine for a longer period than one month unless it had been branded to show just what amount of coal it contains, and the branding is to be done by the mine inspector within thirty days in the absence of any branding on a car, so that this will prevent the miner from being defrauded for a longer period than thirty days. The old Act gives the inspector three months to brand a car, but the Act was drawn away back in 1893, or thereabouts, when they wanted a man to go to the mines on horse-back, but today they can go in automobiles, and to defraud the miners with an un-uniform car for thirty days is sufficient, so that is why I amended the present law to thirty days instead of three months.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, as I read this bill, on page 3, line 12, * * * "The car shall be uniform in capacity," then further on it states that each and every car shall be branded separately It is my thought in my interpretation of this Act that it will work a severe hardship upon the small operators. We have hundreds of small coal operators buying cars at different mines, and as I take it, unless all of the cars are not uniform in size, each car must be branded separately. If I am correct in my interpretation of the Act, I would like to ask the Senator from Fayette if the branding of the cars would not determine their capacity, and, therefore, all the cars would not necessarily have to be uniform in size.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, even if the cars are branded, they must be uniform in size.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, in other words, the branding means nothing.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, no, the branding does not mean anything other than to show the capacity of the car, but if they are uniform in capacity—if the Senator wil pause for a moment, while I explain—even if the operator had all the cars branded, what a confusion there would be, some of the cars would be 48-bushel capacity, some 58 and some 62, and possibly some of them more than that. Suppose in this particular mine they do not pay according to the bushel, but pay according to the carload, they pay so much a car and the bushel contents would not be taken into consideration. In ascertaining the wages of the miner, it is so much per car, it might be $1.25 a wagon, and whether you load a 48, 58 or 60-bushel car, you would still be paid at the rate of $1.25, if the cars are branded and not uniform in capacity.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, and by branding these cars the weighmaster will be able to determine the amount of bushels that the car will hold?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, but the weighmaster, whenever a car comes out, he is merely interested in ascertaining who loaded the car. The cars are numbered 1, 2 or 3, but he merely takes off the metal check that is attached to the car to show who loaded the car, then the miner is paid for a car of coal, and the system of records of the employer consequently will not show a car of 48 bushels or 58 bushels, but it will show either one, two or three cars mined in one day and the miner will be paid accordingly.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, this is a very important feature in this bill. I am afraid it is bad, as it will effect a great many small operators in the western part of the State, that is, the purpose of the bill in branding the cars and making them uniform in size, and by branding these cars it means nothing. It is going to work a hardship upon the small operators if they have to put cars of uniform capacity in their mines, it is almost impossible. I doubt today whether we have two mines in the western part of the State in which twenty cars are alike, and to brand these cars in regard to their size determines the amount of coal they hold.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Cambria if he is not aware that the language in this section of the Act is identical with the language that has been on the statute books for forty years, and the operators have not been inconvenienced by that.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I do not know.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I might inform the Senator from Cambria that this wording is the exact wording in the law on the statute books for forty years, and there has been no complaint at any time that the Act has not been applicable to the situation described.

And the question recurring,

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move that the Senate proceed to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 762 (House Bill No. 1156), on third reading.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 762 (House Bill No. 1156), entitled:

An Act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in boroughs towns and townships as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors requiring the county commissioners of the various counties to act as a registration commission therefor and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens parties political bodies registration commissions commissioners registrars inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions county election boards election officers municipal officers departments and bureaus police officers courts judges prothonotaries sheriffs county commissioners peace officers county treasurers county controllers registrars of vital statistics certain public utility corporations real estate brokers rental agents and boards of school directors and imposing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Mercer if this bill has been amended so that the effective date will apply immediately or at the end of the year.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, it applies immediately.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, in view of the fact that the bill has just come to our desks, I ask that the bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The chair hears objection.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I might say in that connection that one of the reasons for my objection is that there are a number of different counties very much in doubt as to the form of supplies they will have to buy. They want to save the necessity of going ahead with the present registrars' books.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, if the Senator from Mercer says that there is a lot of the counties disturbed because they do not know which forms to order, I understand also that the county commissioners generally throughout all of the State are very much disturbed about the expense at this time in getting their budgets out of balance, and they feel that the effective date of this legislation should be the beginning of the next calendar year and not at the present time, and the Senator from Mercer should not object to our studying the bill.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I will withdraw my objection and let the bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

RESOLUTION MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO ENACT LEGISLATION PROVIDING FOR A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ABOLISHING EXEMPTIONS OF PAYMENT OF INCOME TAX BY GOVERNMENTAL EMPLOYERS AND OFFICIALS

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOODWARD offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, April 20, 1937.

Whereas, There is now before Congress a resolution for a constitutional amendment requiring all federal employees and officials, appointed or elected, to pay state and federal income taxes; requiring state employees and officials to pay federal income taxes; and requiring employees and officials of national and state banks that are members of the Federal Reserve System to pay state income taxes, and

Whereas, Abolition of the exemptions on such salaries would result in a great increase of revenue to the federal government, thereby reducing the ever-increasing burden upon the taxpayers who can claim no official exemption, and would enable this Commonwealth in the event an income tax is adopted to secure large revenues from these sources, and

Whereas, Certain other reforms of the federal tax system are necessary to effect the consolidation of the gains which have been made in the national economic recovery, and

Whereas, Repeal of the capital gains and losses section of the federal income tax law would result in acceleration of the movement to economic recovery; would cause an estimated increase of the federal government's income by two hundred fifty million dollars as a direct result of increases in the turnover tax on securities and as an indirect result of widespread business improvement and re-employment of workers; would result in an estimated increase of the tax receipts of this Commonwealth for similar reasons; would prevent the exodus of hundreds of millions of dollars of American capital into foreign security markets; would cause a pronounced improvement in the real estate business and the entire construction industry, with corresponding gains in re-employment of persons engaged in said industries; would cause a great increase in the amount of money in circulation and in the amount of new investments, because of the resultant "freezing" of potential profits; and would cause a decrease in the number of investments in tax-exempt securities, and

WHEREAS, Comptroller Morris S. Tremaine of the state of New York, and many other men of experienced financial judgment have advocated repeal of the capital gains and losses section of the federal income tax law, and

WHEREAS, The federal income tax law provides for a great number of exemptions from payment of taxes on various securities, whereby many persons escape taxation and contrary to the best interests of the economic welfare of the people, deprive the government of a substantial source of revenue while other persons find inescapable taxes more burdensome because of such exemptions, and

WHEREAS, The personal exemptions provided in the federal income tax law are placed at a rate so high that the great majority of persons who fall within the low-income brackets do not directly participate in the financial activities of the federal government, and

WHEREAS, Such participation would serve better to acquaint the great majority of our people with the facts involving the fiscal activities of the federal government and would thus heighten public interest in the financial problems of the nation, and

WHEREAS, It is necessary to effect the foregoing reforms in order to safeguard the gains in the national economic recovery against the possibilities of inflation, an increase in the amount of our national debt, an increase in the amount of capital invested in tax-exempt securities or in foreign countries, an increase in the number of unemployed or a static condition of the unemployment problem, a restraint upon home construction and building operations, a decrease in the amount of money in circulation, and obstructions to industrial and commercial activity; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Congress of the United States be and it is hereby respectfully memorialized to enact with all convenient speed legislation providing for a constitutional amendment which will abolish existing exemptions on payment of income taxes by all governmental employees and officials, legislation which will repeal the capital gains and losses section of the federal income tax law, legislation which will abolish the existing exemptions of certain securities, and legislation which will lower the personal income tax exemption to such a figure as to include millions of people who now escape the provisions of the federal income tax law, and be it further

RESOLVED (if the House of Representatives concur), That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Senators and Rpresentatives in Congress from the State of Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. SKALE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments for the purpose of further study and amendment

On the question

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scale, to withdraw his motion. He has a constitutional amendment which I think was on the third reading calendar last night and passed. which seeks to accomplish the same thing, and which he feels does so by a better method. The amendment which I introduced was passed in 1935 and the question is whether it would not be better to save a year's time.—that would be the minimum that would be possibly saved and it might possibly be that more than that time could be saved, if the time question is not settled by the Supreme Court allowing a shorter space of time. Therefore I had asked and suggested to Mr. Scale and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky, that we permit both of these amendments to ride along to the Senate until we have time to discuss the matter with other people and determine just what was the best thing to do, because not only is Philadelphia involved but other communities in the State as well are involved. I called it up with the idea that we would not let the bill pass here until I had a chance to talk this matter over with these gentlemen. I would ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scale, to withdraw his motion to send it back to committee. I will agree that the bill will not be called up until we have had a chance to work the thing out amicably between us.

Mr. Speaker, has the bill already passed second reading?

The SPEAKER. The bill has not passed second reading.

Mr. TURNER. Then I withdraw my request to call the bill up; Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCALE. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion to recommit.

The bill is not called up.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN.

An Act to amend section one and sections two and eleven as amended of and to add section five and one-tenth to the act approved the thirtieth day of March one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws twenty-one) entitled "An act defining optometry and relating to the right to practice optometry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and making certain exceptions and providing a Board of Optometrical Education Examination and Licensure and means and methods whereby the right to practice optometry may be obtained and providing for the means to carry out the provisions of this act and providing for revocation or suspension of licenses given by said board and providing penalties for violations thereof and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith" by further regulating the practice of optometry and providing for the licensing of optometric eye specialists having the right to treat the human eye

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Patterson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Patterson, the purpose of recommitting this bill to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the question of the gentleman from Philadelphia I will say that the answer to his question is contained in my original motion, for the purpose of further study. The bill has not been considered by the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation. It is a matter which relates very seriously to the health of the people of the Commonwealth and I believe that that committee should have the opportunity of considering it.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny just what portions of the bill the Department of Health and Sanitation would be interested in?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I am not familiar with what sections of the bill the Department would be interested in but I believe that the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation should have an opportunity to consider every measure that comes before this House relating to public health and sanitation.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny whether or not he is a member of the Committee on State Boards?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. I am not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. May I ask the gentleman from Allegheny further, Mr. Speaker, whether he has discussed this matter with any of the members of the Committee on State Boards?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. I have not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman further whether or not he is familiar with the fact that the Committee on State Boards has considered this bill for quite some time and finally reported it out?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in my opinion House Bill No. 1119—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia is discussing a bill that is not before the House at this time.

The SPEAKER. The question before the House is on the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny to recommit House Bill No. 1119.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to discuss the motion, sir.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the motion and not to the merits of the bill.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my opposition to recommitting this bill to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation is that when this bill was in the Committee on State Boards the matter was carefully—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I reiterate my point of order. The gentleman is discussing the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has ruled on the point of order and asks the gentleman to confine his remarks to the motion. The Chair feels that so far the gentleman has confined his remarks to the motion before the House.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, after the bill was reported out for two readings there was a public hearing held in the House Caucus Room about three weeks ago. At that time I believe that eminent physicians of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania appeared against the bill and persons interested on behalf of the bill appeared in favor of the bill. It was a rather long public hearing and I am of the opinion that the Committee on State Boards fully considered the testimony given at that hearing and finally decided to report the bill out to give this House an opportunity to hear discussion on the merits of the bill itself and have it finally voted upon. For that reason I ask the members of the House to vote down this motion to recommit the bill.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker if I understand the motion correctly it is to recommit this bill to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker on this motion I would just like to inform the House that this bill, House Bill No. 1119, was originally committed to the House Committee on State Boards, because it sets up a state board. The House Committee on State Boards gave this particular bill a great deal of consideration before they saw fit to report it out upon the floor of this House. A public hearing was held before the committee, at which time ample opportunity was given to present evidence. After hearing the evidence presented at the public hearing, the Committee on State Boards believed that the bill should be reported out of the Committee on State Boards for action by this House. It is my opinion, as chairman of the Committee on State Boards, that if this bill should be recommitted at all it should be recommitted to that committee which is in full possession of the facts upon this particular measure. I believe that better consideration can be given to any bill in this House by referring it to the committee which is in possession of all the facts concerning the bill. I, therefore, ask the membership of the House not to recommit this bill to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LONG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he does not believe that the Committee of this House on Public Health and Sanitation should have an opportunity to consider a bill of this nature which involves very seriously the health of the people of the Commonwealth.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker I am of the opinion that every member of this House will have ample opportunity to give due consideration to this bill since it is before the whole membership of the House at this time. Every member of the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation has an equal right with every other member of this House to full information, full discussion and full consideration of this bill at this time.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker will the gentleman state whether in his opinion the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation of this House is not selected specifically for their knowledge and experience with public health matters.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker it is my opinion that no committee of this House is ever selected for the purpose of considering any particular piece of legislation. As Chairman of the Committee on State Boards, I am proud of the membership of that Committee. Some of the finest, ablest and most experienced members of this House happen to be members of the Committee on State Boards.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Before proceeding, Mr. Speaker, I wish to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long, the chairman of the committee, that my motion is in sense a reflection upon his committee. I wish to ask the identical question which I just propounded and I wish him to answer it, Mr. Speaker, not on the basis of a committee appointed to consider any particular piece of legislation which is the method in which he answered it, but to consider certain types of legislation, and I ask him whether he does not believe the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation should consider matters relating to the public health.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, this bill does not only affect the public health, but it also sets up a State Board. I believe that every member of this House is concerned with the public health and I believe that they will give it due consideration as it has been given due consideration in the committee on State Boards, where we are fortunate in having a member of the medical profession as a member of that committee.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker I dislike to prolong this discussion but the gentleman is treading very gingerly around the edges of my question. The Committee on State Boards has considered the measure, and that is one part of the legislation that is over with as far as the Committee on State Boards is concerned, but does he not feel that a committee selected by this House specifically for their experience and knowledge of public health should have an opportunity to consider this matter in committee, and I should like, Mr. Speaker, to have the gentleman answer a little more directly than he did the previous question.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker it is my opinion that this bill has had an ample opportunity to be discussed by a committee of this House, a committee which is in possession of all the facts. I believe that that committee because of their possession of the facts and their previous consideration of the bill is better qualified to consider this measure than any other committee of the House at this time.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN and Mr. CAPUTO.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, before this bill is voted on at this time I desire to call the attention of the House to the fact that they are embarking upon a new program. They propose to do away with a plan or a system of collection of taxes in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania which has been in existence for over one hundred years, a system which with all its faults and with all of the amendments that have been offered from time to time since the act of 1834, has served this Commonwealth well indeed.

I want to call attention to the fact that no one can approach this proposition with the idea that he knows exactly what to do. I want to assure the House that I have devoted a great deal of attention to the matter of taxes. For forty-four years I have represented rural townships and boroughs and there has never been a time in all that period when I was not familiar with the existing law at the time with reference to the collection of those taxes, having helped to make out duplicates, serving as a secretary of the council of my borough for over thirty years, serving as a secretary of the school board for a goodly number of years, serving as attorney for townships, as I have said, all this time.

From a rural standpoint I desire to call attention to two facts or two lines of thought why this bill should not be passed and I go on record in saying that the bill should not pass regardless of the amendments that have just recently been inserted in the bill. Lawyers, of course, make a business of looking into these things from the constitutional standpoint. It does not take very much study to come to the conclusion that so far as the local option feature is concerned that it is unconstitutional. So, members of the House, when you vote upon this bill you will vote upon it with the idea that it is just exactly as it was in the beginning.

There are two ways of approaching it, as I say. One is the form and substance of the bill itself. Is it carefully drawn even conceding the theory that the underlying principle that is sought to be worked out here is correct. Now the next thought on it is on the underlying principle itself.

I desire to call attention to the fact that the form and substance of this bill are far from desirable even conceding that the underlying principle is correct and it is along that line that I wish to speak first.

Before I bring out these points I want to say to the House that I have spent at least two hours this morning on this amended bill and have picked out certain clauses, phrases and paragraphs and marked them and numbered them and have written questions concerning them: They are far too many to interrogate the sponsors of the bill and in order to extend the courtesy to these gentlemen who have put their names upon this administration bill, so that they would have a fair chance of defending the bill which has been placed in their hands a marked copy of these questions was handed to the sponsors of the bill. So I will embrace these questions in my argument against the bill.

As to the form and substance of the bill I call the attention of the House to page 4, line 20, under sub-section C and I read the provisions that are set forth there as follows: "All resolutions regulations and rules made pursuant to any act repealed or superseded by this act shall unless inconsistent with any provisions of this act continue with the same force as if such act had not been repealed or superseded."

The questions that I would ask not only of the sponsors of this bill but of every member of this House, the Administration and all of the authorities in connection with it, if you please, as to this particular paragraph are as follows:

1. Would you please name some specific instances which this portion of the bill is to cover?

2. Would not resolutions be in force which were based on repealed acts, if this were adopted?

3. Would it not be necessary in determining the legality of said resolutions, etc. to refer to a repealed act?

4. What would this do to our legal digest, and would it lead to less or more litigation?

The questions suggest the argument. I shall not offer any argument. I merely ask you to think. The greatest trouble that any lawyer in this world has is to get his clients or the people that he represents or the jury or the court to think.

The next paragraph to which I would call your attention is on page 10. I ask the members to turn to page 10 of this bill. In line 16 in the bill—this is Section 9 headed "County Treasurer Designated as County Tax Collector"—appear these words "He shall have and exercise except as herein specifically otherwise provided all of the powers vested by law in the collectors of such taxes immediately prior to the effective date of this act." Now as to that paragraph I desire to ask:

1. Why should the bill not set forth specifically all powers referred to by this portion of the bill?

2. As written will it not be necessary to refer to repealed acts to determine what these powers may be?

3. Will not this lead to more and complicated litigation?

The next paragraph appears on page 10, sub-section B, beginning on line 20. These are the words that appear there on this proposed act: "Before entering upon his term of office and yearly thereafter before receiving his tax duplicate and warrants each such county tax collector shall give a fidelity bond to the omCmonwealth in an amount to be fixed by the county commissioners and with surety corporate or personal to be approved by the court of quarter sessions. Each such bond shall contain a warrant of attorney to confess judgment thereon and shall be conditioned that the tax collector shall well and truly perform his duties and account for and pay over all monevs received by him and account for all uncollected tax items contained in the duplicates delivered by him."

I desire to ask with reference to this provision these questions:

1. Would it not be better to provide that the bond be given to the Commonwealth for the use of all the respective taxing districts within the county for which the county collector is collecting taxes?

2. Will this provision in the bill not lead to confusion when it becomes necessary to confess judgment on the county collector's bond?

3. As written who is entitled to confess judgment on the bond and in what amount?

4. In case there is a shortage in one or more of the acounts of the several taxing districts in the county how are these taxing districts to receive benefits from the judgment confessed upon the bond unless said judgment is entered for its use?

5. What is the detailed plan for confessing judgment on county tax collector's bonds provided for in this section of the bill?

6. Whl should this detailed plan not be specifically provided for in the bill?

I have another question, that reminds me, which I will make number seven:

If once this bond has had a confession of judgment on it what will happen to it if you want to put a second confession of judgment on it having exhausted the power of attorney that is already in the bond?

I next pass on to the fourth question which appears on page 11, line 17, I would be glad if every member of the House would look at these paragraphs and bear in mind that I am calling your attention to them to serve you rather than to find fault. On page 11, line 17 appears these Words: "In each county where there is a county controller such bonds shall be deposited with that officer In each other county such bonds shall be deposited with the county commissioner."

These are the questions I would ask about the depositing of bonds:

1. Does the bill not provide that bonds filed by the county tax collector shall be approved by the Court of Quarter Sessions?

2. Does not the bond to be filed by the county tax collector cover the collection and the proper accounting of the duplicates of the several taxing districts within the county?

3. Why then should the bonds be placed in the possession of the controller or the county commissioners; why should it not be provided that they be filed with the Court of Quarter Sessions?

The next paragraph that I wish to call your attention to is on page 16, line 10. I desire to call attention to this fifth question, beginning at line 10, reading in part as follows: "Salary of County Tax Collector. When the system for the collection of taxes as herein provided shall be in full and complete effect each county tax collector in addition to any compensation which he may receive for acting as county treasurer shall receive an annual salary of" and then it gives the amount which shall be paid in the respective districts; for instance, in a county of the sixth class it shall be $750.

Now I desire to ask these question, you to furnish the answers, if you please:

1. What is the purpose for providing additional compensation to the county treasurer for services rendered as county tax collector?

2. If it is for the additional duties outlined in this bill why would it not be proper to provide for additional compensation to controllers in counties having controllers, or county commissioners?

3. Is this provision not, in effect, an amendment to the present county code or to the Salary Act of 1923.

4. In other words, is it not true that this bill provides for additional duties for both the county treasurer and the county controller or county commissioners as the case may be, and why should one receive additional compensation and not the other? Or why should any of them receive additional compensation when the work will all be done by deputies or clerks for which the taxing districts must pay?

Now, Mr. Speaker those are only five of the questions. There are seventeen of them, but I have just been approached by a gentleman saying that the bill is to be postponed. I am ready to have this bill postponed. I have submitted my questions, which are seventeen in number with a lot of smaller questions attached thereto, to the sponsors of this measure and I trust that while they have this bill on the postponed calendar they will take the time to answer all of these questions and amend the bill, and it will be a pleasure to hear the answers to these questions, because with the permission of the House I shall renew the questions and, in addition, ask the members of the House to oppose the bill on its merits, so far as the underlying principle is concerned. Therefore, with the understanding that this bill is to be postponed and that these matters will be given consideration in the spirit which I have given them in advance, I shall yield at this time asking for the privilege to speak when the bill comes up on final passage.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in view of the splendid arguments that the gentleman on the other side of the House has brought out, and I wish to thank him for furnishing me with copies of the same, and I only regret that he did not fully complete them, but inasmuch as it is the intention to place the bill on the postponed calendar I will not attempt at this time to answer any of them, although from what I have seen the answers to practically all of them are contained in the measure itself.

I, therefore, move you that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MOOMAW. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Franklin the purpose of placing this bill on the postponed calendar.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, apparently in looking around I notice there are a number of absentees here in the House, not upon the floor of the House, but who I know are going to vote favorably upon this measure, and due to its importance we should have a full roll call on the same.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the very reason which the gentleman from Franklin has advanced, I object to this bill being placed upon the postponed calendar. It has been here, we understand the terms, it has been on the calendar and every one knew it was coming up today. I take it that those who are not here do not want to vote. Therefore, I think we should go ahead and dispose of the bill at the present time, one way or the other.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on the motion to postpone I wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that there are quite a number of members absent. I feel sure that this measure has enough implications that all the members desire to be recorded, and I would suggest that we all go along with the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, and support him in his motion to postpone the bill until a full membership will have an opportunity to vote upon it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. SCHROCK and were as follows:

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection House Bill No. 1765, Printer's No. 636 was passed over at the request of Mr. TURNER.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1712, entitled:

A Supplement to the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws 198) entitled "An act to establish a county court for the County of Allegheny and prescribing its powers and duties regulating the procedure therein and providing for the expenses thereof" increasing the powers now exercised by the judges of said court and making the judges of the County Court in and for the County of Allegheny available for use in other courts in the same judicial district.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss, by what authority he believes that the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County may be chosen to sit as judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I took this matter up with the Attorney General's office and corrected the defect in the bill introduced at the last session, in which we provided for the assignment of county court judges in the Court of Quarter Sessions. I do not believe that there is anything in the law to prevent the selection of any county court judge to hear misdemeanor cases in the court of Quarter Sessions only. They have no jurisdiction over the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery. This bill was introduced for the purpose of relieving the criminal court docket by assigning misdemeanors and other cases to the county court judges who say they want more work. It will be a great help to the taxpayers of our county.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny whether or not under the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania there is any distinction as to the judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions, the judges of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and the judges of the Court of Common Pleas.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe there is because the Constitution provides that the common pleas judges shall "in turn" sit in the Court of Quarter Sessions and General Jail Delivery, in hearing law cases, but I think this Legislature has the authority to provide for the trial of misdemeanor cases by the judges of the county court just the same as the Legislature has the right to provide for the trial of those cases in the original act creating the Municipal Court of Philadelphia.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss, whether or not the judges of the Court of Allegheny County could sit in the courts of Oyer and Terminer?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, they could not under this bill.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, could they under any Legislative enactment short of a Constitutional Revision or amendment?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, there will be a question in my mind whether the Court of Quarter Sessions or the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery,—if we by law would provide for the assignment of those judges to sit and hear cases in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, there would be a constitutional question, I believe, although I say we can do it in the Court of Quarter Sessions but I do not believe we will be able to do it in the Court of Oyer and Terminer. That is not the purpose of this bill.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I further ask the gentleman whether if in his opinion the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County, as he has stated, could not serve in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, isn't it true under Article V of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, Section 9, that the same law or Constitutional provision that applies to the judges of the Court of Oyer and Terminer applies likewise to the Court of Quarter Sessions, and therefore if they cannot sit in the Court of Oyer and Terminer they likewise could not sit in the Court of Quarter Sessions, the judges deriving their power from the same section in both instances.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, as I said a moment ago, that question might be raised to the bill but I think it is removed in the wording of this bill which removes the serious Constitutional objection raised in the bill introduced in the last session by myself, which was passed by both Houses and vetoed by the Governor on the recommendation of the Attorney General. I believe this bill will meet the objections raised in the bill introduced at the last session.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not oppose this bill on the ground that it probably will save the taxpayers of Allegheny County some money and I did not interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Weiss, with the end in view of being prejudicial to the bill, but it seems to me that the bill is wholly unconstitutional. It is certainly a question that does not admit of any doubt, as I read the article in the Constitution providing for the judiciary, and that is, if the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County cannot sit as judges in the Court of Oyer and Terminer they likewise cannot sit as judges in the Court of Quarter Sessions, and neither could they sit as judges of the Court of Common Pleas. And while I think the bill has a good purpose and ought to be passed, I just want to call this to the attention of the gentleman from Allegheny County, feeling that perhaps in some way the bill might be amended so that its efficacy could be assured and therefore I simply make that suggestion to the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is no question in my mind about the seriousness of the attitude of the gentleman from Allegheny on any measure before this House and I know this interrogation is not for the purpose of embarrassment. I know he has an honest difference of opinion. I am well aware of the contents of the veto message of the Governor to the bill I introduced at the last session. I had this matter up with the Legislative Reference Bureau and the Attorney General and the bill was introduced at this session, and it was introduced in such a manner and rephrased so as to remove that constitutional objection. If the Legislature has the right to create a municipal court in Philadephia or in any other county, giving it the power to hear certain cases, certainly we can increase the powers and duties of the county court, which this bill does. It provides for the increase of the power to that court in a different manner. You will notice on page 2 of the bill it says: "The judges of the County Court in and for the County of Allegheny said judges shall when called upon by the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the same judicial district as hereinafter provided, have power to hear and determine when certified according to provisions (b) of this section ." So, if this Legislature has the power to create the Municipal Court to hear misdemeanor cases certainly it has the same power to increase the jurisdiction of the County Court of Allegheny County, and I say, in view of the fact that authorities who know much more about Constitutional law than I ever expect to, have said that the bill is in such shape that it removes those objections, I can see no reason why this body cannot take that chance on that recommendation, pass this bill in this House and let it go to the Governor's desk.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny I think there is a clear distinction between the conferring of power upon a judge to sit and hear certain cases and the conferring of power upon a judge to sit as another judge in another court, but if the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss, is fully aware of the fact and feels that the bill is Constitutional as drawn, I want to ask every member to vote for it, although I think it is clearly unconstitutional.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I have listened very attentively to the argument, and I agree with the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss, that Mr. Brown is very honest in his opinions and is very conscientiously differing in his opinion. I think in this instance he is wrong, and that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss, is right and the bill should be passed.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made in the Senate?

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before us is House Bill No. 555 relating to certain amendments in the Credit Union Act of 1933. The amendments on the whole were submitted by the Banking Department and are proper amendments and to a great extent bring the State Credit Unions, that is credit unions incorporated under the law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in line with credit unions who have Federal charters. The Committee on Banking in the House inserted several amendments in the bill as presented by the Department. Those amendments received rather harsh treatment at the hands of the Senate Banking Committee, and as we find this bill on our desks today it would seem to me that the Credit Unions Act in Pennsylvania has been to a large extent emasculated. I do not know whether or not the majority of the members of this House are familiar with credit unions because they usually are not a subject of common knowledge, but for those who are not familiar I would like to state that a credit union is an organization which is based principally upon mutual saving and mutual borrowing. It is a cooperative organization where a member may save his money and where he can make loans based on his membership in that group. As the act was originally drawn, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, a credit union was limited in membership to those who had an association by reason of occupation, membership in the same fraternal, labor or religious organization or to groups by residence or place of business within a well defined neighborhood community or rural district. In my opinion that act as originally drawn was proper. It was in conformity with the majority of the credit union acts now in force throughout the remaining states of the country. Instead of permitting that provision to remain, the Committee on Banking in the Senate struck out the entire portion of that section which permits the incorporation of various groups and restricts them to those having a common bond of occupation in a well defined neighborhood community or rural district. In other words, we were asked today to enact a law excluding anything in the nature of a lodge or in the nature of a fraternal organization. Under the provisions of this act that would no longer be permitted and only those who work in a certain place could form a credit union. I believe that if this provision were properly called to the attention of the Senate Banking Committee and to the attention of the members of the Senate they would agree that the striking out of that provision is harmful rather than helpful. In addition to that when the bill left the House there was a provision against compulsory rebate of interest where loans were repaid by members before their actual due dates. The reason for that was because we feel that any amount that may be made by a credit union should rather be returned to its shareholders in the form of a little better dividend than to give it to the borrower, who under this act is restricted to a six per cent interest charge.

I therefore desire to express my opinion on this measure in asking the membership of this House to vote against concurring in amendments of the Senate.

Mr. DUBBS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that is before you this afternoon, as Mr. Blank has very well said, is one which seeks to enable the citizens of this Commonwealth to gather together and mutually be of assistance in placing their money in one bank and enabling them to lend it out to various members of the association.

The amendments that he has spoken of, if I have followed him correctly, have to do with the portion of the act where the Senate took from the act the words "religious and fraternal organizations."

As I understand the credit union it was intended that the people in a credit union should be intimate, that they should know each other well, so that they would be able to judge of the credit of any person who made application for a loan. Religious organizations are wide-spread and so are fraternal organizations, so that if those words were left there without any modification, it is very possible that credit unions might be formed which would be almost national in scope. However desirable that might be, it is not the purpose of this act to create such a credit union.

In regard to a rebate on the interest, that is a provision which has been put in by the Senate especially for the benefit of the bar. The only question is whether or not a credit union can operate in Pennsylvania profitably with such a provision. Undoubtely a man who borrows from a credit union would be benefited if when he returned the money ahead of time, he could take advantage of this particular clause which would give him a rebate on the interest which he had paid by way of discount when the loan was made. To that extent it would be an advantage to him and it would also be an advantage to the association, because it would encourage the members of the association to return the money to the treasury as soon as possible and in that way more loans would be capable of being made by the association.

I admit that this is a controverial subject, and, as had been pointed out by Mr. Blank, this House by its committee amended the bill and cut out the rebate feature. The rebate feature has been introduced in the bill again, and I think it is a very narrow question, but so far as the religious and the fraternal organizations are concerned I think there can be no doubt that the Senate amendment is proper. As far as the rebate question is concerned, I feel that it is a matter of practice entirely and in that I am forced to depend upon the Banking Committee for the statistics they have given me or at least the result of their statistics, that in Pennsylvania these unions have operated and there is only one in the State that does not have the provision put forth by the Senate amendment.

I must, therefore, ask you to adopt the amendments of the Senate.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blank.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLANK. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I understand the provisions that were stricken out by the Senate apply to the compulsory return of unearned interest. Does not the gentleman from Philadelphia think that the borrower is entitled to the return of unearned interest if he repays his loan before the due date?

Mr. BLANK. I do not, Mr. Speaker, and I would like to answer the gentleman from Philadelphia by an illustration. In the majority of credit unions the amount of the loan is small, and under the provisions of the Senate amendments that credit union would be forced to rebate the precise amount that would be due a borrower. If a borrower repays his loan on the sixteenth day of the month it would probably take the Secretary of the organization from fifteen minutes to half an hour to figure out the exact amount of that rebate. Some member may say it is proper to repay a small amount of interest that may be due. I feel that it is not for the reason that the amount of money that is retained in the credit union is repaid in the shape of dividends to members who are saving, and I think it should be the policy of this Legislature to encourage the saving in small credit unions rather than to encourage the borrowing, and I feel if we put a premium on saving, by giving the saver a little higher return on his money, we will be encouraging the saving of money in credit unions, which in my opinion is a most desirable thing.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 1937. No. 46.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 1937

The Senate met at twelve o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE, (Mr. Harvey Huffman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Our Lord and our God, we would enter into Thy gates with thanksgiving, and into Thy courts with praise; for Thou art good—Thy mercy is everlasting, Thy truth endureth forever.

When weary, we flee to Thee, as to the shadow of a great rock. In storm, we seek shelter in its clefted side.

Often, we are willing to stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord; yet slow to go forward at Thy Command.

Teach us so to budget our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. Make us sensitive to things sacred to Thine own heart; alert to Thy challenge of fellowship with Thee. In the name that is above every name. Amen.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if the members of the Senate will turn to page 13 of this bill, Printer's No. 574, they will find that the amendments are intended to be covered by the amendments of the House, so as to change the effective date of this act from September, 1937, to its original effective date, 1938.

In making these amendments, apparently the printer did not place a bracket before the word "September," so that it leaves the matter in an indefinite state. I, therefore, ask unanimous consent at this time to offer an amendment to place a bracket before the word "September" on page 13, line 1.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, can the Senate take any action other than concurring in the amendments of the House, or the appointment of a conference committee?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the question which is raised by the Senator from Susquehanna has been taken up with the parliamentarian and the Director of the Legislative Bureau. It was the thought of most all of the members of this Senate, and we were given to understand that when this bill came before the Senate for concurrence, in order to avoid a Conference Committee, which would result in our failure to concur, we can bring an amendment and correct the matter in this manner. It has been the view of many of the Senators that we cannot do that, but I think we can be guided by the decision of the Parliamentarian and the Legislative Bureau, who know more about it.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair feels that an amendment made in the House can be properly amended in the Senate. The only question in the Senate is whether unanimous consent should be given immediately for consideration, and the Chair hears no objection.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 740, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Act No. twenty-one) entitled "An act to protect miners in the bituminous coal regions of this Commonwealth from fraudulent deprivation of wages providing standard weights and measurements for coal mined and prohibiting the use of other standards providing methods for the ascertainment of proper weights and measurements through checkweighmen and checkmeasurers elected by the miners imposing duties and liabilities upon operators and imposing penalties" clarifying the provisions of said act providing for the filing of complaints with the court of common pleas and for the procedure thereon and providing additional penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time,
On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to point out a feature in this bill that I think we should consider at this time. On page 3, section 2, this bill reads as follows: "all cars filled by miners and their laborers shall be uniform in capacity".

Mr. President, that word "uniform capacity" will ruin hundreds upon hundreds of small coal operators. I would like to ask the Senator from Fayette to explain just what he means by "uniform capacity".

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will the Senator from Fayette state for the information of the Senate his explanation of the meaning of "uniform capacity"?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, it is not so much the explanation of these words that is vital here, but it is the situation that the bill is intended to cover, and the only way that these words can be properly explained and understood by anybody is to have at least a general knowledge of the system of mining coal and of paying the miners who mine and load that coal. Now, yesterday, when the bill was on second reading, I was asked to give an explanation and I did. The situation in a coal mine differs, that is, it is different in different mines—they have different ways of ascertaining the wages of the coal miner who loads the coal. Some employers have scales installed and the miners are paid on a tonnage basis, and at this mine it makes no difference whether the car contains 40, 50 or 100 bushels, because the coal is weighed and the miner is protected; he is paid for the tonnage he has loaded. Then we have quite a number of other mines in the State where the coal miner is paid by measurement; what we mean by that is so much a wagon load. Now, with that in mind, if the wagons are not of uniform capacity, if they have a capacity of 45, 50 or 60 bushels, he pays the miner not according to the contents, but so much a wagon load. The miner who loads a 40-bushel car will get the same wage for the car that a man who loads a 60-bushel car receives. Now, then, that is defrauding the man who loads the 60-bushel car, and this bill is intended to cover that situation so that the cars are uniform and the miners who load these cars are paid a uniform wage.

Now, I will say in explanation of the words referred to by the Senator from Cambria in the bill as it now stands on the calendar, in section 2, the words that the Senator complains of are the exact words that have been on the statute books since the very beginning, in 1893, or over forty years, that section has been worded like that and there has been no complaint from anybody. The only complaint as I can see it, is from the operators who want to defraud their miners by having cars of different capacities and paying their men so much per car, that is, they set their wage rate at 40 bushels per car. A car will hold, say, 40 bushels and they pay the miner on that basis, but yet they have in that mine cars of 55 or 60-bushel capacities and thereby defraud the miner of the excess tonnage of coal that he has mined. Now, this bill guards the coal miners against that fraud, against that cheating, and I say there has been no complaint from anyone up until this very time about the wording of this bill, the same wording has been on the statute books in the same language for over forty years, and I do not think much can be gained by questioning it now, when the courts have already passed upon this and found no fault with the wording of the bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, if this has been the wording for over forty years, it is about time we have that wording changed. The Act is very inconsistent in this feature, The uniformity of the cars in a coal mine is almost impossible. I do believe that cars should be branded, and that if a coal miner should load a car of coal that might hold 40, or 70 or 80 bushels, that he should be paid for the amount of coal that he produces, and by branding these cars, stating the amount of bushels that they will hold, the coal miner is going to get his honest wage, but picture a small coal operator with fifteen or sixteen different kinds of cars of different capacities, and it states very specifically in this bill that if the cars are not uniform in capacity, for each and every day that the operator permits such car or cars to enter the mine he shall be fined for such violation. Where are we going to? What is going to happen to both the small and large operators? Why this is the most vicious piece of legislation that I have ever had before me. I cannot see how any man can vote for a measure of this kind. Now, I repeat if this has been the law, let us repeal that law. There are some good features about this bill and I hate to see the bill destroyed, and I would like to ask the Senator from Fayette to postpone action on this bill until it is possible for us to get together and take out the wording "uniform capacity'.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I still have an answer to make, because I think the complaints made by the Senator from Cambria do not come in good faith. I do object until I have completed my answer to the Senator. Now, I would like to call his attention to section 9 of the Act. It covers the complaint that the Senator from Cambria makes. It is impossible by a general Act to cover the particular complaints of the Senator. You cannot pass an act to cover every little thing that you might be personally interested in, but the act must be in general terms and then you may have exceptions to it. Now, section 9 covers that situation. If you have any mine where the capacity of the cars are not uniform, the men and the operator may agree with each other as to that particular feature and be paid accordingly. Section 9 states: "Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to prohibit or prevent the operator and the miners collectively at any time from contracting for any method of measuring or weighing coal." and if they have a mine where they want to use cars that are not of uniform capacity, the employer may get together with the employe and tell him, "now, you load a 40-bushel car, or a 50-bushel car or a 60-bushel car, and we will pay you for 40 bushels, 50 bushels or 60 bushels." I think we should not take this out of the act and permit the coal operator to have two or three sizes of cars and pay the miner the same wages for loading a 40-bushel car as he does for loading a 50- or a 60-bushel car. The cars ought to be uniform and the miners ought to be paid uniformly, and section 9 covers the complaints of the Senator from Cambria. If the operator is honest, he should pay his miner for the coal he puts in the car.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I disagree with the Senator from Fayette, because by branding these cars the operator will pay the miner for the amount of coal that car contains. He is inconsistent in his argument. By branding these cars that contain 40, 50, 60 or 70 bushels, the miner will be paid for loading the car to its capacity. The Senator from Fayette comes back to section 9 and states that the operator and miners can agree on so much pay per car. That is true, but in the event that the coal miner has another complaint to make about the coal mine, he can get four or five of his colleagues together and have the operator arrested and make him pay one dollar each for having such cars on the premises. Any complaint that might arise about coal mining can be referred right back to the arrest of the coal operator, because his cars are not of uniform capacity.

BILL OVER IN ORDER REQUESTED

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 720 (House Bill No. 1130), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend sections fifty and seventy-two as amended subsection (b) of section one hundred ninety-one sections two hundred twenty and two hundred twenty-six as amended sections two hundred twenty-eight and two hundred fifty-six and section two hundred eighty-five as amended of and to add section two hundred eighty-two and two hundred eighty-three to the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" further regulating the taking of fish changing certain penalties and providing new penalties requiring certain persons to possess fishing licenses providing for and regulating the revocation of fishing licenses providing for the payment over of fines collected and the return of fines erroneously collected vesting certain additional powers in the Board of Fish Commissioners eliminating certain restrictions on the use of license fees and regulating closed seasons on boundary lakes

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 762 (House Bill No. 1156) on third reading, entitled:

An Act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in boroughs towns townships as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors requiring the county commissioners of the various counties to act as a registration commission therefor and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens parties political bodies registration commissions commissioners registrars inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions county election boards election officers municipal officers departments and bureaus police officers courts judges prothonotaries sheriffs county commissioners peace officers county treasurers county controllers registrars of vital statistics certain public utility corporations real estate brokers rental agents and boards of school directors and imposing penalties.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 762 (House Bill No. 1156), entitled:

An Act to provide for the permanent personal registraiton of electors in boroughs towns and townships as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors requiring the county commissioners of the various counties to act as a registration commission therefor and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens parties political bodies registration commissions commissioners registrars inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions county election boards election officers municipal officers departments and bureaus police officers courts judges prothonotaries sheriffs county commissioners peace officers county treasurers county controllers registrars of vital statistics certain public utility corporations real estate brokers rental agents and boards of school directors and imposing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Mercer if there is any particular reason why the effective date of this bill should be now rather than next year?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, there is.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, will the Senator tell us what the reason is?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, there are several reasons, and I might say that this bill provides for personal registration in the various polling places. If the effective date were extended to 1938, the individual citizens will have to go to the polling places during the winter when it is twice as hard to get out, and it will greatly increase the difficulties in registering the voters, where if it goes into effect now, they will have until the middle of August to complete their registration.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Mercer if he has talked with any of the officials in any of the counties that will be financially affected by this legislation, whether or not it will upset their budgets.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I would say frankly that all parties were represented at a public hearing last week. While many of them had complaints to make, after they saw the figures showing what the cost was going to be, they were reasonably well satisfied with the figures and raised no particular objections in the hearing.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I understand that these amendments meet with the approval of the Department of Revenue?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I have not taken it up with the Department of Revenue.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object to these amendments.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I think everyone in this Senate recognizes the many inequalities that exist by reason of this perfectly rotten tax act. I do not think that anything can be done to make it a satisfactory act. These amendments I have offered make merely two changes. In the first place, they classify personal property, the subject of this personal property tax, into two classifications, one property that produces income and the other property that does not produce any income, and it exempts from taxation non-income producing personal property. The income producing personalty, this act provides shall be valued at a figure equal twenty times the earnings of that property, the dividends received during the previous calendar year. In other words, if a bond pays 4%, it will be taxed on the value of $800.00, or twenty times $40.00.

There have come to my attention numerous gross inequalities, as I know it has to everyone here, in the administration of this act. I have in mind the case of a retired school teacher who depends on an income from stock which she has, I think, in a Texas corporation, which last year paid $1.00 a share. On January 1st of this year that stock had a market value of $53.50 a share, with the result that this tax amounted to 46% of her income. Mr. President, if this amendment is adopted, it will wipe out those inequalities in the administration of this law, it will exempt people who have non-income interest securities and the payment of any tax on it. If they produce income, if it is 5% income, it will be par, if it is under that, they will pay on the real value, they will not be required to pay 40%, 50% or 60% of their income by this tax.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, when this bill was first passed, in the last session of 1935, the subject that has been discussed here by the Senator from Tioga, was discussed thoroughly, and the bill was finally passed in its present form, except that the amendments were suggested at this session by the Revenue Department. On Monday we had a meeting on this bill and the Senator from Tioga was present. The bill was reported out for the purpose of giving the members an opportunity to read the bill and to suggest such amendments to the bill as they might see fit, if there was any situation in the Act of 1935 that needed minor correcting. These amendments offered today strike at the root of the bill. The whole controversy has always been in the personal property tax, whether or not the tax should be based on the value of the bond, or whether the tax should be based on an income-producing bond, and under those circumstances it should seem to me that every member of this Senate is committed to the bill in the form presented by the Revenue Department, otherwise the budget, which was based upon this bill, would be entirely upset. I ask the members of the Senate to vote down this amendment.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I merely want to say that when this bill came before the Committee on Finance, I expressed very strenuously the desire to have these amendments considered, and suggested that if the bill was reported out, we would be permitted to have it go over for second reading and passed on Monday night. Some of the members of the Committee objected to that and said that if we had any amendments to offer, we were to have them ready today. We were not to take any time to consider it. So for that reason I worked last evening and prepared the amendments. I agree with the Senator from Philadelphia that they are important amendments. I disagree, however, with him that the effect of these amendments was considered before; the amendments were never considered before by this Committee. I do not think that these amendments will materially decrease the revenue from this bill, but I think they will very materially wipe out some of the gross inequalities in the effect of this eight-mill tax law. I certainly do not think that this Senate can brush these amendments aside without considering them; I will be very glad to withdraw them and have this bill go over in its order and submit copies of the amendments to my friends on the other side, or do anything they say with respect to these amendments, but I do want them considered. I think it is a serious situation in this Commonwealth, the inequalities brought about by this eight-mill tax law, and if we can do anything to relieve the hardships that have come about, it is certainly up to us to do it.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object for this reason: When the bill was discussed in Committee, a representative of the Department of Revenue told us in answering the request made by the Senator from Tioga, that this bill go over for reading on Monday night, that the time was too short and that this bill must be passed before the 1st day of May in order to allow the Revenue Department to prepare for the budgetary plans. The Senator from Tioga did not mention this question at all in the Committee meeting. We do not want to change the basic law of 1935, but we did say that if there was anything in the amendments to which objections could be taken, we should have it called to our attention before the bill passed finally, and under these circumstances, the Revenue Department said that we could wait, but we ought to pass this bill on second reading.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection to the bill going over in order?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, as Chairman of the Committee on Finance, I would like to have the Senator from Tioga withdraw these amendments and have the bill go over in its order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would be very glad to do that.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the bill going over in order? The Chair hears none.

Whereas The production sale and distribution of milk and certain milk products in this Commonwealth are attendant with serious conditions affecting milk producers milk dealers and consumers of milk the following legislative findings of fact with respect thereto are hereby made

1 Milk is the most necessary human food vital for promotion of the public health and for development of strength and vigor in the race It is a most fertile field for the growth of bacteria and therefore its production and distribution have been surrounded by more costly sanitary requirements than those of any other commodity in this the third greatest milk producing and consuming State of the nation

2 Milk consumers are not assured of a constant and sufficient supply of pure wholesome milk unless the high cost of maintaining sanitary conditions of production and standards of purity is returned to the producers of milk If this is not done large numbers dispose of their herds or engage in milk strikes and remaining producers supply unhealthful milk or milk lower quality because of financial inability to comply with sanitary requirements and to keep vigilant against contamination Public health is menaced when milk dealers do not or cannot pay a price to producers commensurate with the cost of sanitary production or when consumers are required to pay excessive prices for this necessity of life

3 Milk dealers must handle constant surpluses to meet the emergency requirements of normal variations in fluid consumption and to meet seasonal variations in production which amounts in excess of fluid requirements must find a market in fluid use or in manufacture and tend to demoralize the industry Only one per centum of the milk dealers of the Commonwealth handle over sixty per centum of the milk sold by producers to dealers and persons have often combined privately to establish practices or fix prices to the detriment of producers or consumers

4 Milk producers must make delivery of their highly perishable commodity immediately after it is produced and must generally accept any market at any price Under the utilization method of payment prevailing in the milk industry particularly in cities the value of this market is unknown until the milk dealer sells the fluid milk and uses or disposes of the surplus Furthermore only the dealers have facilities for accurately weighing and testing milk This knowledge of weights tests and uses is in the exclusive possession of the dealer The producers' lack of control over their market is aggravated by the trade custom of dealers in paying weeks after delivery keeping producers obligated to continue delivery in order to receive payment for previous sales and permitting dealers to operate on the producers' capital without giving security therefor Hence milk producers are subject to fraud and imposition and do not possess the freedom of contract necessary for the procuring of cost of production

Whereas public control of the milk industry in recent years is stabilizing the conditions therein and a relaxation of control will cause a return to the unhealthful uneconomic deceptive and destructive practices of the past with respect to this paramount industry upon which the health and welfare of the Commonwealth largely depends and

Whereas It is necessary to preserve and promote the strength and vigor of the inhabitants of this Commonwealth to protect the public health and welfare and to prevent fraud and imposition upon consumers and producers by continuing to treat the production transportation manufacture processing storage distribution and sale of milk in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a business affecting the public health and affected with a public interest

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same as follows

An Act relating to milk and the products thereof; creating a Milk Control Commission; establishing its jurisdiction, powers and duties; regulating the production, transportation, manufacturing, processing, storage, distribution, delivery and sale of milk and certain products thereof; providing for the licensing of milk dealers and the payment of fees therefor requiring milk dealers to file bonds to secure payment for milk to producers and certain milk dealers; authorizing the holding of hearings and the issuance of subpoenas by the commission; conferring jurisdiction upon courts to punish contempts and to prohibit violations of this act and of rules, regulations and orders of the commission; authorizing the commission to adopt rules, regulations and orders, and to enter into interstate and Federal compacts; requiring persons who weigh, measure, sample or test milk to procure permits or certificates, to take examinations, to pay fees therefor, to furnish certain notices, records and statements, and to use certain methods of weighing, measuring, sampling, and testing; authorizing the commission to examine the business, papers, and premises of milk dealers and producers, requiring the keeping of records and the filing of reports by milk dealers, and permitting with limitations, the use of information obtained thereby; authorizing the commission to fix prices for milk and certain milk products subject to the approval of the Governor, and conferring certain powers upon the Governor with respect thereto; providing for appeals to the courts from decisions of the commission, and for the burden of proof upon such appeals; prescribing penalties, fines and imprisonment for violations of this act and rules, regulations and orders of the commission; defining perjury; defining remedies; repealing legislation supplied and superseded by this act, and saving rights, duties and proceedings thereunder; and making an appropriation.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education for the purpose of further study and possible amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. O'Connor

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. O'CONNOR. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman have any specific reasons for moving to have his bill recommitted to the Committee—did the gentleman say the Committee on Education?

Mr. O'CONNOR. On Education, yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman have any specific reasons for his motion?

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Schuylkill, I would say that I have objections to this bill and the specific purpose for having it recommitted, this bill is a special piece of legislation pertaining to fourth class school districts in fourth class counties only, and it has been the practice established by the Committee on Education to give such bills particular study.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, while this bill pertains only to fourth class counties, we have in the past and in this session passed numerous bills that may be classed as special legislation, if this bill may be classed as such. We have also passed bills affecting second class cities or Allegheny County and we have passed bills affecting only Philadelphia. Therefore, I feel that this bill is no more special legislation than any of those bills and I ask the members of this House to vote down the motion made by Mr. O'Connor.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker. and members of the House, this bill is a bill that came on the floor of this House on Monday night, after it had been referred to the Committee on Elections. Since this bill vitally affects the fifty-seven fourth class counties and the school districts therein and the County of Cambria, which I represent being a county of the fourth class and it being of great importance not only to that county but to every other fourth class county in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I feel that the Committee on Education is the only committee that should consider this bill, and since we have not had that opportunity and no reasonable explanation has been given us for referring an educational bill to the Committee on Elections, I feel that we should give this bill carefully study and possibly have a public hearing on it. I, therefore ask the members of the House to support my motion to recommit this bill to the Committee on Education.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the fact that this bill was not placed in the hands of a ommittee that the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. O'Connor, would like to have had it placed, is no reason why the bill should again be recommitted to another committee. All of the members here, I feel sure, have had bills that they would like to have placed in the hands of a particular committee than the one to which it was referred, and the fact that this bill was sent to the Committee on Elections should not be and is not sufficient reason to recommit it to a different committee. I ask the members of the House to vote down the motion to recommit.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think the Gentleman from Cambria is correct in his request to send this bill to the Committee on Education where it properly belongs, because it deals with questions pertaining to the schools. I think there is another reason why this bill should be sent back to committee. The bill is clearly unconstitutional and therefore it should go back to committee, without being brought before this House tomorrow on final passage or on Monday night. This bills, as we all know, is to take care of a particular situation in Schuylkill County.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware, I feel, is not speaking upon the motion before the House but rather upon the merits of this bill and the constitutionality of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the motion before the House.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, this bill does not have any merits and that is the reason I am sending it back to committee, if it is possible to do so. I am not discussing the provisions of the bill if the gentleman from Schuylkill means that, but I am talking about this bill having been designated and presented for a particluar purpose, to take care of a case that is now in the Courts of Schuylkill County, and to defeat the orderly processes if this school board is ousted. Now to make an exception of fourth class school districts in fourth class counties is unconstitutional. The bill ought to go back to committee and the proper committee for this bill is the Committee on Education, and I am going to ask the members of the House to vote to recommit the bill.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I agree with the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, in one statement: the bill has no merits from a Republican angle. I am heartily in accord with that statement and I am not surprised that the minority leader of the House has taken the floor against this bill. So I ask the members of the House to vote down the motion.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I sincerely regret that the gentleman from Schuylkill has seen fit to bring politics into this educational bill, and I think that is not speaking on the motion. I think it is well known to us all that the Committee on Education will be held responsible throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for this bill having been brought before this House for final passage, and since it is an educational bill and we shall have to assume the responsibility, which we are willing and glad to do, I again ask this House to vote in favor of the motion to recomit.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the only thing I want to say to the members of the House is that I have plenty of bills in the committee now. If you have to decide this matter now you might as well decide it, because I have all the bills I want and I am not particularly anxious to get any more.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Schrope.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHROPE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Schuylkill whether it would be satisfactory if this bill were placed on the second reading postponed calendar rather than have it recommitted to the Committee on Education?

Mr. SCHROPE. No, Mr. Speaker, I see no advantage in placing this bill upon the postponed second reading calendar.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, it was my desire that this bill be given further study and I felt that its importance warranted further study. However, I also feel that there is a situation existing that does require expeditous action on this bill, and if the bill were returned to a committee it might possibly delay that action, and I would ask the membership of the House to vote down the motion to recommit.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, politics I think would not surprise me but, today I experience the Democratic floor leader after asking me to take this motion getting up and asking that the motion be voted down. I would like to know what is in back of this action. There must be some very sinister motive in back of this motion or such conduct would not be indulged in by my distinguished friend from York. I made the motion in good faith and I wish to stand by it and I hope the membership of this House will support me since I made the motion after conferring with the majority floor leader.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to state to my distinguished friend from Cambria, Mr. O'Conner, that I did not understand the entire implication of this bill. I understand from the gentleman from Schuylkill that there is a situation existing in Schuylkill County that is of vital importance to the fourth class school districts in his county. Now, there is no doubt about it that if we are going to legislate on fourth class counties we cannot legislate for Schuylkill County alone but that we must legislate for all the fourth class counties in the Commonwealth. However it was my desire that this bill should be referred to a committee pending an opportunity to give the bill further consideration. I feel and I agree with the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. O'Connor, that this bill has a tremendous amount of implication where we are legislating for fourth class school districts in fourth class counties in a manner which is different from other school districts in first, second and third class counties. I also realize that as far as the gentleman from Schulykill is concerned that there is a tremendous amount of implication as far as Schuylkill County is concerned and the particular situation with which they are confronted, and so it was my desire to gain more time and an opportunity to see whether or not the situation might not possibly be adjusted to the satisfaction of all parties concerned without resorting to a method which possibly might create a type of legislation that this Legislature might not want to indulge in. However, in view of all the facts, I think the bill should remain on the calendar until an opportunity can be had to adjust all differences.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. WEIDEMANN.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. SHEA filed the following reasons for his vote on House bill No. 1119.

Mr. SPEAKER. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, we have before us tonight, House Bill No. 1119, Printer's No. 586, a bill which will absolutely lower the standards of the healing arts of our State. A bill that is an insult to the intelligence of both parties and should and will be defeated. The reasons for the defeat are as follows:

1. Legislative reason
2. Social reasons
3. Scientific reasons

The Legislative reasons that I offer for the defeat of this bill are foul tactics. Our opponents have presented us with a bill demanding surgery and in offering an amendment to delete the word surgery they are fulfilling my early suspicions that in case they met with opposition in the State Board Committee they would delete the word surgery and obtain that which they most desire, the medical treatment of the eye.

Their main objective is to get possession of lawful medical treatment. Evidently, they cared not for surgery from the beginning. Their lobby tactics and pressure from without gave us an exhausted State's Board Committee that was glad to see this bill enter the floor of the House for their own ease and comfort.

Gentlemen, this is the "kicking tactics" of the football field to gain yardage. Gentlemen, their bill says that they will use no test other than those for the eye. Gentlemen, these are "weasel words"—in fact resemble the mole more than the weasel. Ladies and Gentlemen, I only have to refer to page 3, lines 1-6 of the Amendment Bill.

Social Reasons

Among the social reasons why they should not be granted medical practice or treatment are based upon the requirements upon which medical and other schools are founded.

First of all the endowment of such institutions is necessary for their scientific advancement. Only recently I met President Burey of Temple University in this building. He stated that the capital required by the medical department of Temple was two million dollars. The Dental School approximately one million dollars. The Hahnamann is also approximately two million or more dollars. The Jefferson's valuation runs from three to five millions of dollars and after our opponents compare the care of the eyes to the care of the tooth I will state that no dental school in the history of Pennsylvania has been able to endure without merger with a medical school. For the Pennsylvania School of Optometry to exist—will, give us in case their bill passes, another appropriation for the State budget to wrestle with or from the talk of their super-salesmen we met in the last public hearing, a chance to sell stock or perhaps another Charity Ball as conducted recently in Philadelphia to help another institution in its "celestial dreamings."

The physical property of the Pennsylvania School of Optometry has existed until recently, around the corner from my office and is of a very uncertain but rather diminutive financial value. In fact, no value can be placed upon its property in Spring Garden Street. I am an officer of three Building and Loan Associations in that particular neighborhood which is a decadent neighborhood. They are now in the fern rock section of Philadelphia occupying a former home with more or less beautiful gardens surrounding it. This property is also of uncertain solvent value. This information I gleaned from conversation with bank presidents.

I have, on several occasions, been requested by the poor of my neighborhood, to give a note asking for free glasses from the Pennsylvania School. I understand the usual price is $3.00 plus.. The eye glasses were well made and I've had no complaint regarding their adaptibility to vision. Before signing the notes of request I was thoroughly satisfied that the general physical and mental status of the donees was in good condition. This, in my opinion, corresponds with the Optometric Bill No. 1119, is trying to amend and which is further fortified by Optometrists who are convinced that the Pennsylvania School of Optometry crowd is making unreasonable demands. It is further fortified by the Optometerists who do exclusive optical perscription work.

I will support all Optometrists who practice optometry for the measuring of vision and I will support their bill asking for protection; asking that department stores and others cease, as unlawful and unlicensed practitioners. Furthermore I will ask that alien manufacturers who are destroying the ethical optical practitioners be kept out of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen, you can deduce that I am fair in my relationship with the Optometrists and I am willing to encourage them and work with them along the lines of their basic bill—the act approved the thirteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, pamphlet laws No. 21. I again reiterate that I am here for the protection of the people of this Commonwealth and the upholding of the traditional standards of this Commonwealth regarding the laws of Public Health and Sanitation. And finally but not the least factor is the fact that the Pennsylvania Society for the Blind has requested the defeat of Bill No. 1119.

Scientific Reasons

Gentlemen, I have told you that this bill should be defeated (1) from a legislative stand point; (2) from a social stand point, and now I will tell you why it should be defeated from a scientific stand point:

(a) both parties, Democratic and Republicans have eyes and have had them since evolution bought us to our present stage, which is shown by the protruding yere of the featus.

(b) The eye is an integral part of the brain, analgous and homolgous.

(c) The eye is an integral componant and is continuous with the torso and its appendages, head, legs, arms and in man a vestigual tail.

(d) We have according to one nomenclature of neuroanatomy twelve cranial nerves, six of which are connected with eye function directly, all indirectly.

(e) The eye ball is only a small portion of the optic pathway or tract and an anatomical continuity which brings the registration of vision to the back of the head.

(f) These statements are made after thirty years of teaching and scientific work, including 10,000 cases of anathesia, gynocology, neurology, general and neuro-anatomy. My early studies of anasthesia were based on a study of the physiological actions of the pupil (eye) which showed the depth of narcosis or unconscieusness. I also learned of the existance of vital nerve centers and not knowing what was meant thereby I wandered into the field of nuro-anatomy and physiology. I have studied the Argyll-Robertson pupil which tells me of the defects not only along the third nerve, or the pupil, but in the very depths of the brain, usually syphillis. I know the sense of position, I am reviewing this knowledge and experience to show the absurdity of our opponents arguments when they attempt to separate the eye from the head and general body. They talk to you about eye pathology, eye anatomy, eye this and eye that, with a flippant superficiality that to a scientifically trained man becomes alarming. It is not forty hours that I spent in the study of the eye, Gentlemen, it is going on forty years. And I maintain that instead of superciality, profoundly should guide the mind of those who attempt to treat the eye. In fact they falter in their unreasonable attempts at legislation when they amend their bill to delete surgery, and try to camoflague on Medical Practice which in my mind is older and more artful than surgery. Gentlemen, blindness is not always due to injury or disease of the eye ball; brain tumers away back in the brain may cause it. To treat the eye properly and in toto the bills proponent would have to present in the accounchment clinic, and watch the vertex of a new world visitor so that silver nitrate be placed in the eyes of the squaling brat. Infection of the eye will cause body temperature, application of an ice pack to the head or body, or a giving of a therapeutic bath, means general medical practice. The proponents of this bill gentlemen, claim that they will give no medical tests other than those for the eye, Gentlemen, as I said before, these are weasel words,—in fact they resemble the mole more than the weasel. The tests they need are all general body tests which are (1) the Wasserman and Kahn Tests for syphillis, (2) Urinary tests such as kidney efficiency—sugar tests for albumen-Renal threshold tests, etc. (3) Liver tests for Jaundice and Icterie Index. and the proponents of this bill (1119) cannot treat the eye without them.

The proponents compare the eye with the tooth. In severe criminology where an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is demanded, they are right. In science, they are wrong. This statement can be verified by the Hon. David Perry who lost his teeth at the Banquet of the Legislative Sons of St. Patrick. Bad as this accident was, I am glad the Honorable David did not lose his eyes.

Finally, this bill (1119) is a question of Public Health and Sanitation and upon reaching that august body I promise to do all I can for society in general.

JOINT SESSION

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR THOMAS KENNEDY IN THE CHAIR

The SERGEANT AT ARMS OF THE SENATE. Mr. President, I have the honor to present to you the committee appointed to escort His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth and Honorable James Hamilton Lewis, United States Senator from the State of Illinois, to the Hall of the House.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I have the honor to present His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth. and United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis.

The PRESIDENT. Members of the General Assembly it is my privilege and honor at this time to present the Honorable James Hamilton Lewis, United States Senator from the State of Illinois, who will now address you.

The PRESIDENT. His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth and the members of the General Assembly, it is my privilege and pleasure at this time to present a man who has been invited to address the General Assembly, a distinguished a member of the United States Senate, the senior Senator from Illinois and an outstanding statesman. I present the Honorable J. Hamilton Lewis.

HON. J. HAMILTON LEWIS. I beg for the moment to salute the officers of these Legislative bodies and to express particularly to you my appreciation and sense of gratitude that I have been allowed this privilege. I prefer to leave with you the thought that I have had something to do with the construction of this noble building in so far as a legislator is concerned. I wrote to your distinguished Governor and expressed the thought that I had never seen the building. I wish to thank the gentleman who preceded me for being kind enough to pay me this tribute. My reward is the privilege I now have of appearing before you. Permit me to say to you that while I appreciate the flattery of the introduction, let me tell you that in looking back upon my activities I recall nothing which has provided me with more compensation or pleasure than my service in the Houses of the Legislature. You gentlemen have done yourselves something of an interesting public service in allowing a fellow legislator to come before you and give some expression as to matters which surround you and which will greatly interest you perchance, beyond that which you had time to calculate. I want to say something to you, since I was called to come before you, I am anxious to avoid anything of a controversial nature with my brother legislators or anything of a political character in the strict sense of the word. Let me at this point say to you that I do not know how I could define politics in this era unless you would allow me to adopt an experience of mine. I was at Geneva a short time ago, dropping by there on my way back from Rome, and I stopped in the gallery at that time and listened to the subject under discussion as to whether or not sanctions should be applied upon Italy respecting the conflict in Ethiopia. I said what I was permitted to say and upon coming out into the yard I was met by a Hollander, whose English was somewhat like my German, but I think I can give you what was said to me. He said: "I never understand your American politics." I said, "No, nor do I." He said, "You say when a man who was your way coming back he was a crackerjack, but when you say he was your way coming in he was an 'asserjack'". I said "your are right," and to this day I do not think I can give to you a more complete definition of our differences, it is a more complete definition than often times may be described in principles.

The day is upon America when the United States should establish and declare an American Foreign Policy. America must tender herself as mediator in the conflicts between the nations of the world. This course to be guided by a new prescription of a new international law. The time has gone by when modern America can fit herself to the ancient doctrines of international law that has become worn away by time and repealed by events.

There is now no international law in the world. What was international law between nations—accepted regulations suggested from the time of Justinian the Roman to Grotius of Holland, amended by the English policy and the American adoption—has become wholly unfit to modern conditions. These old tenets are discarded and the world left today with no accepted international regulations which apply to two countries alike.

Note that lately a declaration of neutrality and embargo suggested by England and France touching the war between Italy and Ethiopia was declined by every large country in Europe. Each of the large countries proposed a substitute; this was defeated by the rival lands as hurtful to their commercial interests. The threat of embargo against their products awoke the protests of manufacturers and exporters—and the political reprisals on the officials suggesting neutrality that carried embargo—drove the political masters to compromise—then surrender.

United States Never Neutral

Today the United States cannot be neutral in any controversy between nations anywhere in the world. If the subject is one claimed to be the relief from oppression, there attends it the cry of the distressed—and America is at once awakened, aroused and active. And if there be not this sentiment aligning her, her material interests in the protection of her shipments, or her right to exchange her profits with the nations of the world and her privilege of the broad waters of the ocean vouched by creation to mankind, make her at once an interested party.

America may be neutral as to conduct by withholding action but she cannot sacrifice her privileges inherited from her ancestry and enlarged to her present development to participate in the world's bounty and to profit in the world's commerce.

Nor can America ever surrender the freedom of action in her sovereign citizenship. In this we see that the old doctrines of international law, neutrality and subjects akin to these chapters of old prescriptions have no place fitting to America of today.

Each Nation Suspects and Does Not Trust the Other

Here it is we anounce that as no country in Europe or in Asia will accept the doctrines of any other country of Europe or Asia in their completeness, all for the reason that each suspects the other of laying a foundation, hidden either in expression or movement, for invasion upon territory sought by each, or preparing for conflict feared by both. We have lately seen that any doctrine, however just in sound, is at once accused duality of words and disguise of motive. Such comes from those who by ancestry have been the foes since ancient days.

Why America Can Guide

As America is known to have no desire to possess the lands of other nations nor to seek conquests of other people, the doctrine she would now set forth to meet the modern demands of the new world in the new day could be accepted by all the nations of earth as expressing only the rules of action that will serve to hold all nations in balance with each other through the obedience to the regulations which in themselves gave no preferences, granted no privilege, permitted no special license, imposed no partiality and conferred no power for encroachments.

Because of these assurances, America would be adopted by every nation of the world inspired by the dream of peace and sustained by religion and trust in the justice of God. Then it is the day for America to embody a set of laws dealing with the affairs of all nations looking to prescriptions that shall prescribe what is necessary to a true neutrality and assure world peace.

The Briand-Kellog Peace Pact—A Delusion

The countries sitting in session have demanded of the United States that it shall enforce in conjunction with the lands of Europe or with courts named by the countries of the world the doctrine called the Pact of Paris. This refers to the Briand-Kellog Peace Pact.

This Pact prescribed that "war should not be the policy for the settling of disputes nor the purpose of any nation". To that the United States, of course, subscribed both by the signature and by sentiment. But the enforcing it is before us for consideration in its effect upon our countrymen and our property.

Definitions of the Pact

This Pact provides that we shall first decide who in conflict is the "Aggressor". Then such aggressor to be visited with a penalty of on further credit financial,—no further alliances political,—no further associations neighborly. There are no rewards provided in the Pact for those who obey its prescriptions. There is added to the Pact the reservations demanded by each signer that each nation reserved the right to declare war upon any of three grounds; (1) to repel agression; (2) for the maintenance of a purely "domestic policy" in the control of its home affairs (with us—the Monroe Doctrine—or our exclusion laws); (3) in self-defense. Finally there was added by the United State of America and four great countries of Europe and accepted by all the countries parties to the instrument that each nation should decide for itself what was "aggression", what was its "domestic policy" for its own government, and what was its "self-defense".

You will observe that these declarations gave to each country the right to declare war on any nation if they could assign it under any of these titles. You will not forget that all history relates that all wars that have any place in the halls of history from the Dark Ages to this illuminating hour were put upon one of the grounds or sometimes upon all the grounds in these three qualifications to the Pact.

Loans of Money Defeat Enforcement of Pact

Here we inquire why under this Pact there has never been any judgment by the nations against any other nation in conflict or the two or more nations in contests as to who was the 'aggressor" or what it was that made the aggression. And wherever a judgment has been intimated, there has never been concurrence, whether the war be in South and Central America, between Japan and China, or Japan and Russia in Manchuria, or that prevailing now in Ethiopia threatening the great nations with the aspect of a new World War.

We pause merely to note that each nation had its reason and that in most instances was the loss of profit to itself, in finance, in commerce or in territory if it dared pass judgment adverse to any other nation. Note that the expression as against Italy by those who assembled at Geneva claiming Italy to be an "aggressor" promptly divided all and each adopted a qualification to the judgment. Then each by action finally repudiated the judgment. Nor is there anything from Asia that can be said to be an expression of an Asiatic nation adopting the decision.

What Was the Reason of Non-Action by United States

We turn to ask of ourselves what was the reason that this United States, servered from personal compacts and governmental partnerships with nations either in South or Central America or of Asia or of Europe, never pronounced a judgment under the Pact of which they were a party and a member? Why did our United States refuse to put into execution any judgment in any form, either for or against, the war or as opposed to either combatant?

Our Loaning Twenty-Five Billions to European Debtors

As to ourselves, we need but note that the United States had lent to selected governments of the world its money as a war debt that reached twelve billions. In addition to this we lent commercial and industrial enterprises of these countries what reached twelve further billions. There was at stake twenty-five billions of American money. For this money in some form or another, the borrowers issued their securities in the shape of bonds, commercial obligations. These were distrbuted either through sale or exchange to the American citizen investor, to the American business and the American home.

You will see that there is no political Administration that could ever be elected by popular vote that would have ever dared to issue a judgment of "aggressor" against any contesting nation, each of whom was directly indebted to the United States or a partner of those who were indebted and an ally of those who were under obligations or financial character to the United States.

Danger to Adjudge an "Aggressor"

The moment the Government of the United States would declare one of these nations an offender—"aggressor"—and attempt to execute the penalty of cutting off of financial dealings or commercial intercourse, all personal and business association would cease, and promptly that outcast nation would announce: "Since you have now placed me upon the list of the condemned, and destroyed my credit, in what manner do you, the United States, assume you will be able to collect your money?"

Our Government would not only realize that they had not only lost the debt to themselves but by a single stroke had demolished to ashes the securities of these countries which the United States had distributed to the American citizen individually or in his business association.

The result of this would be such a penalty upon our Administration from the sources of political power, both through finance and vote, that the Administration could not survive any moment of future existence. In the meantime the country who had been condemned and its allies would promptly against the United States in resentment and vengeance for having declared against it and in the result provided support and supplies to the antagonists who had been acquitted of aggression or offense.

Then the friends of those condemned would all in union be upon the United States as assailants. If those who were friendly to the viewpoint of the United States aided her in defense of opposition to these assaults, we would again have another World War of Nations. If such did not come to her aid, the United States would be destroyed both in commerce and existence by those against whom she had issued her declaration. Her ships would be fired upon on the seas, her property seized and her nationals throughout the lands travelling in those countries treated as offenders and violators, and the lives of these promptly sacrificed.

You will see from this the impossibility of the United States—as now situated, from ever executing what is known as the Pact of Paris. And you will wonder why it was ever entered into at the time it was, when you contemplate the relations our county bore as creditor to debtor and the general world attitude advanced against us because of our attempt to hold our rights and collect our debts.

Remedy: Stop Loans of American Money to Foreign Nations

We are confronted with the duty which we must openly avow as the remedy of these situations. It is that before we can go a step further in declaring a policy of international law, we must declare for our American Policy that there shall be no further lending of American money to foreign nations. If needs call for our generosity and our charity, we will supply them as a Christian and humane does a charity. If on the other hand there be those who need provisions of life or commerce, ascertain by appropriate course what are the things the country needs and which would buy with money. Then instead of advancing our money, turn to our factories and to our farmers and obtain the products from ourselves, paying the American money to the American and advance the article and the products to those who seek the provisions and trust such credit as the circumstances would justify.

It will be seen that that which we send out could only come from the surplus as we would see that our own people were supplied before we could gratify the wants of others. Should we fail to collect our money,—true we have lost the goods, but we have not left ourselves in the position again as we are now—the loss of the money and the loss of the friend, and collections only of hatreds and animosities. And to this the fate of no peace but increased hate and multiplied wars.

No League Nor World Court Membership At This Time

Let it be seen that in the present mood of the nations of the earth, a resort to the League of Nations is but to yield to a combination of those who, individually however well meant, in the present day are confronted with such confusions and antagonisms that they can render no decision that is not the expression of political expediency and, if expressed, cannot be enforced by any form or process now prescribed or prevailing.

To the World Court no refuge could be had because the Court is so divided through the control by the League, that the Court is left where its decisions are guided by the policy of what is most profitable to the nations of the Judges who sit in the tribunal or where they feel they will produce from their point of view as little of martial antagonism and less of commercial conflict as possible.

Deal Separately—Nation by Nation

Let us take as final the sacred course as the only remedy fitting to our situation and in harmony with our new doctrine of American International Policy. Let America sit at the table of comradeship, summon each nation that assumes it has a grievance against the United States and under the fulfillment of the Scriptural injunction, "Come let us reason with one another," work out the evils and reduce the subject through concession and mediation to where a compact of confidence and the revival of friendship would follow. After each nation has sat with us and the result obtained, then it is that in conflict between these nations our nations is in the position as the good friend and the good neighbor to summon them, they who are in contest, again around the table. And these, knowing we sought no conquests of territory nor of commerce in trade save by the usual system of friendly competition on merits,—then it is those in the controversy would hear our prescriptions of peace and, glad to avoid that which segregates them from confidence and love of mankind, anxious to preserve their own people and in no wise to be open to the charge that they have surrendered to an enemy or to one who is calculating the time to be the antagonist,—our America through the guidance of our President makes first effort with the sister South American Republics. We summon their cooperation to the vow of all peace for the American Continent. We now call this converted continent to go forth and bring the votaries of devotion to universal peace to spread the faith to the world.

Mediation—and Compromise

May we not authorize our President to invite now the nations that are in conflict within themselves—Spain, China—and those lands in war with their neighbors or their opposites to come to our gates, bid their delegates to sit at our firesides, where they may compose their differences by the mediation of American justice which guarantees liberty of national action and full individual prosperity.

Is it not now that we should summon the nations who were parties to the peace treaty of the World War to send their envoys to the United States, and in our hospitable house of friendship reconsider in the spirit of new brotherhood, then review in cool deliberation,—from which they may revise under the urge of new justice, the terms of the peace pact. Today the world charges that the prescriptions of this compact run in blood vengence. That they express hatred undying, and transmit to generations now living, and those unborn, eternal revenge to be absorbed or gratified in universal murder. To avoid this inheritance upon nations, it is America and her standards that can infuse confidence, engender affection, and prompted by the pursuit of peace and the brotherhood of man, stimulate the creation anew of international concord,—Then these nations, parties to the pact, may again clasp their hands in friendship, and in one new chorus of action sing a refrain dedicated to the success of man and the service of God.

For this, America steps forward and tenders herself as the guide of nations, the director of peace and the salvation of the world.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair wishes to express the thanks of the General Assembly to the Honorable James Hamilton Lewis for the splendid message delivered to us this afternoon, and to you, Governor Earle, for making it possible to have Senator Lewis with us. Thank you.

The business for which the Joint Session of the General Assembly was convened having been transacted, the Joint Session is adjourned, and the Senators will please assemble immediately in the Senate Chamber.

The SPEAKER (Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, House Bill No. 1156 is a very important bill so far as a great many of our counties are concerned. It seems to me, inasmuch as these amendments are rather extensive, that concurrence should be passed over for the present time to give us an opportunity to study these amendments.

The SPEAKER. The only thing before the House is the motion of the gentleman from Westmoreland.

Mr. TURNER. I do not want to move to lay it on the table.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Delaware the bill has been on file since April 19th.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, the bill has been returned from the Senate with the information that amendments have been made, in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that the Chair has submitted that to the House?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, does the Chair not have the power to withdraw that submission for the present?

The SPEAKER. The matter was submitted to the House and the sponsor of the bill has made a motion that the House do concur in the amendments of the Senate.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LOVETT. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Westmoreland withdraw his motion to concur at this time?

Mr. LOVETT. For what reason, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, to give us an opportunity to look at these amendments.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I understand that the amendments that were put in the bill by the Senate are very simple.

Mr. TURNER. That may be true, Mr. Speaker, but is there any necessity for speed on this bill?

Mr. LOVETT. Yes, Mr. Speaker, due to the fact that the time is drawing very near for having registration.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I require of the gentleman from Westmoreland when is the time set under the bill?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, it becomes effective immediately upon the signing of the bill by the Governor.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Westmoreland when is the next election?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is asking me a question the answer to which he knows.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I am asking the gentleman from Westmoreland. Perhaps I don't know, perhaps he doesn't know.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, perhaps I don't.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, then it is admitted that neither one of us knows. It is in September.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, will transfer his interrogation to me for a moment or two I may be able to answer some of his questions.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland yield to the gentleman from Allegheny?

Mr. LOVETT. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, my question to the gentleman from Westmoreland was, what is the necessity for speed. A delay of a day or two or three or four days will not make very much difference as far as the bill is concerned.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, the reason for speed in the passage of this measure is to avoid the expense of having the assessors, who begin their work the first week in May, throughout the month, going out and imposing a tremendous expense upon the county, whereas the bill becoming effective immediately the different municipalities can speed up the machinery for permanent registration in the various counties. There will be an expense incurred in setting up the machinery but we do not want to double the expense by holding this over for a week or so and delay the signing of this measure by the Governor, and this will give an opportunity to the assessors to begin their work.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, certainly the county commissioners in any county of the State are not going to set up any machinery under the old acts to have the registration when they know that there is a bill which has now passed the Senate and is ready for final action. I cannot see why you cannot lay it over until tomorrow and give us an opportunity to look at it.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I might say, in answer to the gentleman from Delaware, that the bill is almost identically as it was when it passed this House This bill is similar to the permanent registration bill affecting second class cities, second class cities "A," first class cities and second class cities. Permanent registration throughout the Commonwealth is now uniform.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I have the greatest respect for the word of the gentleman from Allegheny. I do not doubt for a moment that he understands just what has been done, but at the same time I do not believe that in a matter so important as this that this bill ought to go through without our having a chance to see what it is. A delay of a few days will not make a very decided difference.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, the act absolutely requires the assessors to begin their work the first of the month. If there is any delay in the enactment of this measure the taxpayers back home will be holding the bag and the commissioners will be compelled to pay the assessors for their work, regardless of the time they put in. I think this bill, being identical to all the measures which have been voted upon and passed by this House, that we should concur in the motion of the gentleman from Westmoreland.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the gentleman will not withdraw his motion to concur, I move you that the motion be laid upon the table, and I ask for a roll call.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss?

The SPEAKER. The motion is not debatable unless the motion to lay on the table is withdrawn.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, may I have unanimous consent of the House to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I will consent to have the Congressman interrogate me.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I thought I made a motion to lay it on the table.

The SPEAKER. That is correct. The Chair has stated that the motion is not debatable unless the motion that you made is withdrawn.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I will be willing to withdraw my motion in order to give the gentleman from Mifflin an opportunity to interrogate, with the understanding that I shall have an apportunity immediately to renew my motion.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny when is the effective date of this permanent registration bill?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Immediately, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny whether or not in his opinion this would have any effect on the voters in a district where a special election will be held within the next two weeks? I am asking that question for this reason: would there be a state of confusion at the time this election would be held, which will be May 11, concerning the voters and their attitude towards permanent registration.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that this act will have any effect upon any special election held between now and the primary or the general election this fall, the municipal election this fall.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, here is the idea that I wish to express: If there should be any confusion concerning the registration upon the passage of this bill it may be embarrassing for candidates who will be up for election at that time, and that is the reason I am anxious to know, because as one of those candidates I am very much concerned in this next special election.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, let me say to the Congressman that the act provides and sets up the machinery for the different registration days throughout the month of June and September. I think there are three registration days, although more can be had upon petition of qualified electors, in order to set up the machinery for permanent registration prior to the primary election this fall. I do not believe there will be any state of confusion as to any permanent registration being required in order to qualify electors to cast their ballots at a special election.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker,—

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Delaware will yield I will make a motion that we lay the motion together with the bill upon the table.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, before yielding I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I was unable to hear most of the interrogation by the gentleman from Mifflin in reference to the May 11th election, but it would seem to me that the gentleman has raised a very important question, if this bill is signed now and goes into effect immediately, unless there is some protecting provision in it, whether it would not require the voters for that election to be registered according to this act. I think that that is an added reason why this should be laid upon the table. I hadn't thought of that question, but I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny his opinion.

SENATE MESSAGE AND BILL LAID ON TABLE

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, just for the reason raised by the gentleman from Delaware and raised by the Congressman from Mifflin, I move you that we place the bill, together with the Senate message upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. LONG asked permission for the Committee on Labor to meet during the session of the House.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I ask permission of the House to have a meeting of the Committee on State Board in Room 101 during the session rather than after the session.

The SPEAKER. Will the House grant permission for the committee to meet during the session? Is there objection?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman state the purpose of the meeting?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, the meeting is to take up the regular work of the committee. A meeting was posted and has been posted for the past two days for a meeting after today's session. For the convenience of the members I have been requested to try and hold that meeting during the session rather than after the session.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the House is very light and that a great many members have gone home, it seems to me that it would be a bad time for the committee to transact general business. If the gentleman from Philadelphia had some particular piece of legislation which it was necessary to expedite I would agree, but under the circumstances I will have to object.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman has objections I will hold the meeting at the regular time scheduled, after today's session, but it was merely for the convenience of the members that I wished to make the change.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I do not see any difference between holding it after the session and holding it now as a meeting of the committee. I withdraw my objection.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection, and permission is granted.

RESOLUTIONS

SYMPATHY EXTENDED

Mr. RUSH offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 21, 1937.

This legislative body, on proper occasion pays fitting reverence to the memory of citizens of this Commonwealth, who, because of their achievements, have gained an outstanding position in their communities or in the State. This reverence and respect has been well earned, during a more than usually long, active and effective lifetime, by the Honorable John B. Hannum, late President Judge of the Orphans' Court of Delaware County.

Judge Hannum became a member of the legal profession in 1877, and early in life served the city of Chester as councilman, and the County of Delaware as district attorney. In 1921, when a separate orphans' court was established for Delaware County, he was appointed to its judgeship, to which he was later elected and, in 1931, re-elected. Both as district attorney and judge, matters of great public importance and general interest came before, and were disposed of by Judge Hannum.

Resolved, That it is with regret that we consider the passing of a capable judge, and commend the Honorable John B. Hannum to the memory of his fellowmen.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be forwarded to the sons and daughters of the deceased as a last tribute to their father.

INVESTIGATION OF WAGES AND WORKING CONDITION OF STATE HIGHWAY EMPLOYES OF BEAVER COUNTY

Mr. REISING offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent that it be read for the information of the House.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 21, 1937.

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of three members of the House of Representatives, whose duty it shall be to make a study, inquiry and investigation into the wages and working conditions of employes of the Department of Highways in the County of Beaver, and to make report thereof to the House of Representatives as early as possible.

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I ask the unanimous consent of the House for the immediate consideration of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the immediate consideration of the resolution? Is there objection?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

RESOLUTION No. 61

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 61, Printer's No. 664.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 30, 1937.

Whereas, there has recently been sold as the property of the Piedmont Coal Company a tract of 1,300 acres of timber located in Lick Hollow, Fayette County, at the foot of Summit Mountain; and

Whereas, said tract of land borders the National Highway, a distance of about two and one-half miles; and

Whereas, the growth on said tract averages at least fifty years and is one of the finest remaining in the south western part of Pennsylvania, and is a tract with gorgeous scenic beauty; and

Whereas, the purchasers of this tract are contemplating cutting the timber thereon which will destroy the scenic beauty now enjoyed by the citizens of Fayette County, and the hundreds of thousands who travel the National Highway; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Department of Forests and Waters shall as soon as may be, make an investigation of the tract of land referred to in the preamble hereof with a view of ascertaining the advisability of acquiring in the name of the Commonwealth said tract as a State park or for addition to the State forest lands of the Commonwealth together with an estimate of the amount of money required to purchase the same, and make report thereof to the House of Representatives at this session of the General Assembly.

Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Department of Forests and Waters by the Chief Clerk of this House.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

STATEMENT BY MR. REISING

Mr. REISING asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the reason I asked for unanimous consent for the immediate adoption of this resolution is because there is a strike on at this time in the Highway Department in Beaver County, and I thought that if the resolution was adopted that over the week-end I could make an investigation or the committee could make an investigation and have its report here next week, and I sincerely ask the objectors to withdraw their objections and to permit the immediate adoption of this resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman who made objection to the immediate consideration of this resolution withdraw his objection?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. No, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair still hears objection and consent is not granted.

ADDRESS OF HON. OWEN B. HUNT

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the scholarly address delivered in the Hall of the House by Insurance Commissioner Owen B. Hunt on March 16 last, entitled "The Part Played by the Irish in American History, be printed in the Legislative Journal.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chief Clerk is directed to have Insurance Commissioner Hunt's address printed in the Legislative Journal.

INSURANCE COMMISSIONER OWEN B. HUNT. Members of the House:

"History is the high court of humanity where truth must be heard and justice must be pronounced," says the historian George Brancroft.

The truth regarding the part played by the Irish in American history has long been obscured. The Irish in this country have been looked upon as comparative newcomers. As a matter of fact, they had an important part in sowing the very seeds of American nationhood. In Pennsylvania above all the Irish have been part of the very fabric of the State's life since the foundations of the Commonwealth were laid. Throughout the history of America and of Pennsylvania they have demonstrated their readiness to defend their country with their lives, and by their toil and patriotism have done a full share to make America great.

From the beginning of Pennsylvania, the Irish came here by the thousands, seeking to carve out home for themselves in the vast wilderness. They were drawn by the knowledge that under the charter of Penn and the laws of the Province they could enjoy civil and religious liberty. Before 1726, when Pensylvania included only a few tiny settlements, six thousand had arrived. The immigration from Ireland had risen to twelve thousand a year long before 1750. James Logan wrote in 1729:

"It looks as if Ireland is to send all her inhabitants hither; for last week not less than six ships arrived, and every day two or three arrive also. The common fear is that if they continue to come they will make themselves proprietors of the province."

They survived eight, nine, ten eleven, twelve weeks of misery in crossing the Atlantic, with vile food and loathsome drinking water, to reach the new land of promise. To pay for this journey with all its miseries many of them sold themselves into years of slavery that began upon their arrival in the new land. Such a one was Matthew Thornton, a signer of the Declaration of Independence. But because their foothold in the New World was so dearly brought, these Irish valued it all the more.

Not only were the Irish numerous in early Philadelphia. Lancaster County as early as 1700 was the home of many a stalwart Irishman. From the history of the Revolutionary War there is an example that shows not only the numbers of the Irish in Pennsylvania, but their loyalty to the American cause. On April 12, 1779, the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania issued orders for the confiscation and sale of all lands and properties belonging to citizens accused of treason. But we find that in Cumberland County not one property was sold or ordered sold. Strange as it seems, this country was peopled almost entirely by native Irishmen.

The Irish, who formed a large part of Washington's army, were particularly numerous in the famed Pennsylvania line. A careful survey of the muster rolls and other available records of the Continental Army show beyond a question of doubt that thirty-six per cent of the Revolutionary soldiers were Irishmen. Adding to this some small percentage for those of Irish birth or descent whose names were not obviously Irish, and we arrive at the comparatively low estimate of thirty-eight per cent in the army of Washington.

The enemies of American independence estimated the proportion of Irish fighting for American liberty as being higher than that. Joseph Galloway, a Pennsylvania Tory who had been speaker of the Provincial Assembly, the Colonial Predecessor of this very House of Representatives gathered here today, had fled to England. He had been found guilty of high treason by your predecessors in the Assembly of this Commonwealth, and his estate in Bucks County had been confiscated.

This Joseph Galloway testified before a joint commission of the British Parliament in London that scarcely one-fourth of Washington's army were native Americans.

Another fourth, he said, were English and Scotch, and the remaining half were Irish. Major General Robertson, who had spent twenty-four years in the Colonies before the Revolution, gave similar testimony. So that if the Irish were not actually so numerous they must have fought with such desperation that to their enemies they seemed to be at least half of Washington's army.

It is estimated that there were 20,000 men in the famed Pennsylvania line. Regiments in this line were commanded by such Irishmen as Hand, Magaw, Shea, Hazlett and Wayne. The Seventh Pensylvania Regiment was commanded by Colonel William Irwin, a native of Enniskillen, Ireland, and Lieutenant Colonel Morgan O'Connor, a native of Kerry. Four companies of this regiment were commanded by Captains McDowell, Talbot, Montgomery and Alexander, and a survey of the records shows that the personnel of the companies ranged from sixty-four to seventy per cent Irish.

Four companies of the Eleventh Pennsylvania Regiment had forty to sixty-five per cent native Irish, and in other Pennsylvania companies where the nativity of the soldiers was not recorded, the Irish names on the muster rolls ranged from thirty-three and a half per cent to sixty-eight per cent. A perusal of the roll of the First Pennsylvania Regiment of Foot shows the numerical strength of eight companies to total six hundred and eight men; three hundred and fifteen of these were born in Ireland.

Proctor's Artillery Regiment, the first artillery regiment in the Pennsylvania Line, shows the following types of names on the muster roll:

40 per cent native Irishmen
40 per cent native Americans
11 per cent German
5 per cent English
1 per cent Welsh and Canadian

It is safe to assume that twenty per cent of the forty per cent native Americans were sons and grandsons of native Irishmen, so that this regiment, which acted as the bulwark of the Continental line during the entire revolution was over fifty per cent Irish.

These muster-rolls, which show so conclusively the valor of the Irish who served under Washington, are themselves incomplete. No records are available of the thousands of men from the Pennsylvania line who fell in the summer of 1777 on the heaths of New Jersey from Paramus to Freehold in a line encircling Moorestown.

We do know, however, of the valor of John Barry, a native of Wexford and a Pennsylvanian by adoption. The first officer commissioner in the new navy of the United States, he was likewise the last commander to fight an engagement on land or sea. We know of Stephen Moylan, a native of Cork and a loyal Pennsylvanian. He commanded Washington's cavalry, and was his side-de camp in the bitter days at Valley Forge.

The Declaration of Independence, the greatest document ever signed by the hand of man, was signed by thirteen Irishmen. They included, John Hancock, president of the congress, Matthew Thornton, John Hart, James Smith, George Taylor, George Reed, Thomas McKean, Charles Carroll, Edward Rutledge, Thomas Lynch, Robert Treat Paine, Thomas Nelson and William Whipple. Of these signers, Smith, Taylor, and Thornton were born in Ireland and the other ten were direct descendents of native-born Irishmen.

Charles Thomson, first secretary of the Continental Congress, was known as the wire-puller of the revolution. He was also described by John Adams as "the life of the cause of liberty." He was a native of County Derry, Ireland, and taught in one of the first schools in Pennsylvania, in West Chester. It was he who sold the idea of revolution to the Philadelphia Quakers.

John Nixon, a son of County Wexford man, was the first man publicly to read the Declaration of Independence from the steps of the State House in Philadelphia, July 8, 1776. John Dunlap, a native of County Tyrone, printed the first copy of the Declaration of Independence and the first copies of the United States Constitution.

Irish business men living in Pennsylvania contributed generously toward the maintenance of the Continental troops. Twenty-one Irishmen from the City of Philadelphia alone, headed by Blair McClenahan, for the purpose of aiding the Revolutionary Army, organized the Pennsylvania Bank and subscribed a total of 315,000 pounds. Of this amount, ten thousand pounds was given by Robert Morris and 112,000 pounds by the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and the Hibernian Society.

The Irish part in Pennsylvania's history, thus suspiciously begun, has continued without break until the present day. In the Civil War, the World War and other conflicts, men of Irish birth and descent had a part comparable with that in the Revolution. And in times of peace people of Irish race have lent equal glory to government, business, the professions and every other field of endeavor that has contributed to the making of this great Commonwealth.

Irishmen were "first in war, and first in peace," and during and immediately following the Revolution, first in the hearts of fellow-Americans, as George Washington Parke Custis, grandson of Martha Washington strongly indicated in 1828. Custis said "Up to the coming of the French, Ireland had furnished in the ratio of one hundred for one of any foreign nation, whatever. Then honored be the good service of the Sons of Erin, in the War of Independence. Let the shamrock be entwined with the laurels of the Revolution, and truth and justice guiding the pen of history inscribe on the tablets of America's remembrance "Eternal Gratitude to Irishmen.'"

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

Eternal Light, in whom there is no darkness at all—in Thee is the Life that is the light of men, even though our darkness comprehendeth it not. What a privilege to tarry in Thy presence! Our greatest need is need of Thee. The wisest of all ages have sought Thy counsel.

As days press on, beget within an urge to serve. May ambition and sordid lust of gain give place to happiness and the common weal.

We would not pursue the path of selfish prudence, which leads to oblivion and forgotten graves. Help us, rather, to forget ourselves into immortality. We would seek the inspiration of a vision of the cross. Amen.

JOHN H. FERTIG
Harrisburg, Pa.

Hon. George Woodward,
Senate of Pennsylvania,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.
Dear Senator:

Will you kindly act as my spokesman and convey to the members of the Senate, including yourself, my sincere thanks for the beautiful watch which you presented to me the other day in their behalf. It brings to me the realization that the Members of the Legislature do understand that the position I have occupied for so many years requires the expenditure of a great deal of energy. May I say to the Legislators, that my one regret in the performance of the work is that the speed with which measures must be prepared, precludes the perfection and freedom from error which wuold follow a more leisurely procedure; permitting time for reflection. May I say for all those engaged in the enactment of the laws of this Commonwealth that we do surprising well under the circumstances.

I sincerely appreciate this gift for the personal sentiment which is attached to it, and I am proud to display it on the slightest provocation.

Sincerely yours,

John H. Fertig.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MALLORY. Mr. President and members of the Senate, one year ago this last St. Patrick's Day, this State was visited by one of the most disastrous floods in its history. Quite a number of our citizens were drowned and millions of dollars of property damage was incurred. To the credit of the Governor of this Commonwealth, he interested himself in that catastrophe, visited the stricken areas did all, I would say, within his power to relieve the stricken, and later on called a special session of this Legislature to prevent a recurrance of such a disaster.

A bill was introduced in the House, came into the Senate and by reason of one provision thereof, an objectionable feature therein, to which I pointed out to the members of the committee, of which I was a member, which would have placed on the property owners, afflicted by the flood, the burden of preventing floods; that objectionable feature being pointed out to the members of the committee, all of the members of the committee agreed with me that floods, being an act of God not being placed upon the victims of the flood, but should be borne by the State as a whole. The members of that committee decided that a sub-committee of three be appointed, nad I was given the honor of being the Chairman of that Committee, to draft amendments to that bill. A bill was drawn, the sole object of which was to prevent a recurrence of floods or curtail the damage of floods that might occur and it, in my opinion, was a good bill and was so judged by the members of this body and also of the House, and it was signed by the Governor. At the adjourning of that session of the Legislature a new flood control bill was introduced, and I want to state reluctantly that the Secretary of Forests and Waters, at the time this Flood Control Bill was originally considered, did nothing but object, and his whole objection was that the bill did not provide that the State could thereby go into the business of operating public utilities.

Now, I want to call upon this legislature, the members of this body and the members of the House, that it is time to divorce flood control from the question as to whether or not the State shall go into the business of furnishing light or power to the people of this Commonwealth. I think that by my vote in this body that I as one of the few members of the minority party in this Senate voted for the new Public Utility Commission, and this plainly shows whether or not I am committed to the domination of the public utility interest of this State. I am interested as much as anyone in this body or in this Legislature in seeing that the rate-payers of this State are treated fairly, and I think it is time now when we are visited by another flood, and I know whereof I speak, because only a few moments ago—and I hate to mention this fact that a year ago I suffered more than anyone else, because in one of the Counties which I represent, I naturally called up to know what was the effect of the rising waters, for the reason that a year ago a tenant of mine was drowned, so that I was particularly concerned, so I told them not to try to save the property but to leave the place. They told me that the flood stage is higher now than it was last year and therefore I ask that we do not concern ourselves about the State being in the business of supplying light and power but to confine ourselves to the matter of flood control.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 9, on third reading, entitled:

An Act creating a Safety Commission as an Independent Administrative Commission of the Commonwealth and defining its powers and duties.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 20, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to prohibit certain advertising of intoxicating liquors and intoxicating beverages and providing penalties and for the revocation of licenses and permits go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I understand that Senate Bill No. 69, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to protect the obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages and owners of property affected thereby and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof the sale of mortgaged property at less than its fair market value and prescribing the method of fixing the fair market value of said property was reported from committee with the understanding that it should be recommitted. In the absence of the sponsor of the bill, I move it be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 388, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections two three and four of the act, approved the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine (P. L. 470), entitled "An act to prevent the manufacture and sale of adulterated or misbranded drugs; defining the word "drug"; prescribing penalties for violation of this act, and the method of its enforcement," by further defining the standards for drugs and adulteration of drugs.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Henney, who is the sponsor of this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Henney, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HENNEY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I have no particular interest in this bill, but I would like to ask the sponsor, Mr. Henney, whether there is any provision in this bill which would prohibit the sale of drugs now in stock. It occurred to me that there might be a considerable loss by just junking these drugs, I mean the drugs that are on hand as I said before, I have no particular interest in this bill but this matter just occurred to me and I would like the Senator's viewpoint.

Mr. HENNEY. Mr. President, it does not prohibit the sales of drugs that are already purchased, not if they comply with the law.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, supposing they do not comply with the law, with the setup in this new bill as it now exists, that it did not meet the requirements of the law as this bill provides?

Mr. HENNEY. Mr. President, it is not the intention to confiscate the drugs. The intention of the bill is to protect the public and to protect the manufacturer who is really living up to the present law.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I understand that, but suppose there are medicines in existence now that do not measure up to the requirements of the new law, would the sale of those drugs be permitted.

Mr. HENNEY. Mr. President, not unless they measured up, they would have to come up to the standards of the law, that is the reason for the bill.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if he would agree that the bill go over in its order and I make that request.

Mr. HENNEY. Mr. President, I do not object.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 572, on third reading, entitled:

An Act creating the Brandywine Battlefield Park Commission as a departmental administrative commission in the Department of Forests and Waters defining its powers and duties and making an appropriation.

be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations, for the reason that it contains a provision for an appropriation.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1004, entitled:

An Act declaring bonds issued by The General State Authority legal investments for the investment of certain funds and moneys.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, as I understand it the Commonwealth is not responsible for these bonds, and I therefore do not see what right the Commonwealth has to declare them to be a legal investment.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, in answer to the interrogation of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, I would reply that the Commonwealth is in no way responsible for the payment of these bonds, of the City of Philadelphia, but at the same time they are legal investments of the fiduciary.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, my understanding is that the favorite method of circumventing the constitutional limitation of a bond debt, it seems to me, should be regarded with some suspicion.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I think that the Senator from Philadelphia misunderstands the philosophy of the whole institution. It is just simply that the Commonwealth creates another municipal agency, just the same as townships, boroughs and cities.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if these bonds provide on their face the fact that the Commonwealth is in no way responsible or liable.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, in answer to the interrogation to the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, I would say that the face of the bond and the legend on the face of the bond will entirely depend upon what is written into that legend by the action of the State Authority. I would also say, professionally speaking, that it is not necessary to do that to make the bond a valid instrument and yet at the same time if the Authority authorizing the issuance of the bond would decide to put that in the legend of the bond, I see no reason why they could not.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, the reason I raised that question is that these bonds may get into the hands of unscrupulous bond salesmen, and they might go out to unsuspecting and not highly intelligent women representing that they are State bonds, and in view of that they might purchase them with the erroneous idea that they are State bonds, and that is the reason I asked that question, because I can see that a lot of unsuspecting people might be misled into believing that these are State obligations, guaranteed by the State.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, they will not be the obligation of the State.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in leasing this State Authority to a municipality, is it not true that a municipality has power to tax in order to pay the debts, while this Authority does not?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, in answer to the interrogation to the Senator from Tioga, I would reply that this Authority has power, so to speak, to traffic in the assets of the Authority to lease them for revenue purposes, which municipalities ordinarily do not have.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Section 1 Legislative Purpose This State has long recognized that employment of men women and children under conditions detrimental to health and general welfare results in injury not only to the workers immediately affected but also to the public interest as a whole This recognition has produced a broad program of regulatory legislation to conserve the public welfare The continuance of an unregulated industrial homework system in this State runs counter to that program since it is usually accompanied by excessively low wages long and irregular hours and unsanitary or otherwise inadequate working quarters Employment of young children in industrial homework occupations is frequent but effective supervision of this child labor evil has not been attainable under present statutes The dangerous consequences of this system may fall upon the consumer of its products as well as upon the men and women who are its work force The preservation of the system moreover endangers the protection of the workers in factory industries which being forced to compete with industrial homework are under pressure to relax the established safeguards of life health and the public welfare After study of experience and reported investigations the legislature is convinced that industrial homework must eventually be abolished and that during a period of adjustment it must be strictly controlled in the interest of the wage-earners of this State and of the public at large This act is the product of that conviction

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I move to amend page 9, line 12, by inserting after "HC [[]]" and before the word, "and", the following: "except for county purposes, and in cities coextensive with counties, for city and county purposes as now provided by law."

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move to amend section 1 (Section 3), page 7, line 13, by striking out the following: S "and the principal value of"; amend Section 1, (Section 3), page 7, line 13, by striking out with light-faced brackets the following: S "all annuities."

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, these amendments take out a provision making all this tax. I would like to call the Senate's attention to the fact that the present bill taxes incomes yielding annually over $200.00 At present, in the act as it has been re-drawn contains no exemptions on annuities, and all annuities are taxable. I would like to call the Senate's attention to the effect of this bill, for instance, as to the retirement pay of letter-carriers. If this bill is not amended, if this amendment is not accepted by the Senate, the letter-carriers will have to pay from $75.00 to $120.00 a year tax on their annual pension after retirement. To have the exact figures, a letter carrier who retires at the age of 63, pays $75.04 a year tax on his annuity in his old age. I do not think there is anybody in this Senate who wants to make this pension taxable under this act, and to make this four-mill tax apply to those annuities. This amendment would take out all annuities and make them exempt form this tax.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I do not believe that this would apply in any way to a pension, or to an annuity in the nature of a pension, and I cannot see where the present language of the act will make this applicable to letter-carriers or any federal employe drawing a pension.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to state for the information of the Senate that I have those figures furnished by the Department of Revenue. I am advised by the Department of Revenue that the annual pension of a letter-carrier is an example and is taxable under this act the way it is drawn.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator for Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, very glad to.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, as to who in the Department of Revenue furnished that information?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I cannot tell.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I do not agree with the information given by the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, that the annuity of a letter-carrier would be subject to this tax. A letter-carrier gets his money from the United States Congress, and we have never had any legislation in Pennsylvania that would impose a tax on the annuity of a letter-carrier.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT and Mr. BUCKMAN, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—15

Bean,	Gelder,	Howell,	Salus,
Buckman,	Gilson,	Mallery,	Scarlett,

So the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move to amend sec. 1 (sec. 3), page 5, line 6, by inserting after the word "enumerated" the following: on which interest or a dividend was paid within one year from the listing date as provided for in this act; amend sec. 1 (sec. 3), page 7, line 13 by striking out the following: "and the principal value of"; amend sec. 1 (sec. 3), page 7, line 13 by striking out with light-faced brackets the following: "all annuities"; amend sec. 1 (sec. 3) page 10, by inserting between lines 12 and 13 a new paragraph as follows: The value of the classes of personal property so made taxable shall be determined for the purposes of this act by multiplying the income received therefrom during the year immediately preceding the listing date by twenty, except where the value so determined would exceed the market value, in which case the value for taxation purposes shall be the market value"; amend sec. 1 (sec. 4), page 11, line 1, by striking out with light-faced brackets the word: "aggregate"; amend sec. 1 (sec. 4), page 11, line, by inserting after the word "act" the following: "computed as provided in said section"; amend sec. 1 (sec. 4), page 11, lines 14 and 17, by striking out the folowing: "each of the" in line 14, and all of lines 15, 16, and 17 and inserting in lieu thereof: "such property".

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate I desire to state that these amendments classify all personal property as income and non-income producing property, and exempt entirely from the Personal Property tax non-income producing securities, and provide for the taxing of income producing securities by setting up a formula for arriving at their value based on the income received the previous year.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will be very glad to.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, state whether or not the classification of the time proposed by his amendments will be constitutional?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I can only say that Mr. Fertig, of the Legislative Reference Bureau, believes that it is proper classification, and the other lawyers whom I have consulted about this all agree that it is proper classification.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I beg to differ with the Senator form Tioga and those who might state that this classification is constitutional. The subject matter of taxation here is personal property, irrespective of whether it is income-producing personalty or not. The subject matter is personal property, and under the constitution that particular subject, personal property, must be taxed generally in order to be constitutional, and any classification of it ,that is, a classification as suggested in the amendment by the Senator from Tioga, would render this entire act unconstitutional.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I want to say that I am inclined to agree with the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, in that regard, and to say further that I believe a classification such as this amounts to an exemption, and that I believe would be unconstitutional and would tend to void the whole act.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I do not wish to carry on this discussion any longer than necessary, because I have no doubt that the majority in this Senate has already agreed to vote these amendments down. However, I do not want them to vote under any misapprehension. I think that any lawyer who has made a study of the taxing laws will agree that this is classified properly to levy a tax on any general class of property that comes within that class, and to not tax property that does not come within the class that is left out. Now, we have examples of it in real estate. There are any number of classes of real estate exempt from taxation at the present time. This is a Personal Property tax act and classifies all personal property into income producing and non-income producing property. These amendments just offered to this Senate raise the question,"are we going to tax the savings of the people of this State?" In many cases it amounts practically to confiscation, a tax which violates the principle that we have heard about for the last four years, about taxing those with ability to pay. This is a tax that taxes all income and takes the bread out of the mouths of the thrifty people of this State who have saved property to live on the income in their old age, and taxes them whether they get any income from it or not. In many cases it amounts to confiscation. I know several instances, in my community, of widows who have found their income reduced one-half through this personal tax, and it has been heralded all over the State of Pennsylvania as an act taxing the rich. I know a case where a former school teacher who has nothing to live on but the income from some few securities, and she has found that this tax amounts to 43% of her income. There is nothing fair about it. These amendments would, to some extent, clarify this damnable personal property tax act. I think you cannot fix this up so that it is a good act in
